BAPTIST REVIVAL MEETING IN FULL SWING

HUNDREDS FLOCK TO HEAR EVANGELIST WHO THRILLS AND SWEEPS

NOTED SINGERS LEADING MUSIC AND SINGING—PLAN BIG DAY SUNDAY.

With increasing attendance at both the morning and night services the big Baptist revival meeting during its first week of progress has developed an almost unparalled spiritual awakening in Cameron.

With the first week of the meeting to end Sunday, and plans to make that day one of the greatest during the campaign many things for the advancement of the cause of Christianity will have been achieved as the meeting goes into the second week of its progress.

The first service of the meeting was held Sunday morning in the church following a reception Saturday night for the Evangelist and singers. Interest had been stimulated by a series of meetings held by the pastor prior to Sunday. The first open air service was held Sunday night. Morning services are being held in the church and all of the night services are being held in the open on the church lawn, where a large seating capacity has been arranged.

It has become necessary to increase the seating capacity of the lawn and this improvement will be accomplished in time for Sunday services.

Evangelist Perry F. Evans of Fort Worth is conducting the revival, being assisted by Singing Evangelists, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Reynolds of the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

Evangelist Evans is a powerful pulpit orator, preaching at all times sermons that are conservative yet flaming with the spirit of evangelism. His sermons Sometimes sparkling with wit and humor, now a vertible shaft shot to the heart of things, cutting, ever cutting as sins and idols fall routed and maimed in its pathway. He is devotional to the highest degree, spiritual in all that he does, tragically pathetic at times in his appeals inspired with a consuming desire for the salvation of lost men and women.

Thousands are flocking to the meeting to hear Evangelist Evans. The night services find the tabernacle crowded to capacity and the attendance at the morning services have been more than doubled since the first service.

There has also been considerable activity in the various departments of the church, among the grown up people as well as the young people and the junior departments. Active committe organizations are functioning under well laid plans of the pastor Rev. B. B. Blaylock, who called meetings before the revival began to enlist the aid of every department of the church.

Prayer services are being held at the church daily by the young people, Junior department, and the men of the church. The various circle societies of the church are meeting in the homes for daily prayer services.

Singing Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Reynolds of the Baptist Seminary of Fort Worth are directing the music and singing for the meeting. This service begins promptly at 8 o'clock following the prayer services. This service is one of the big features of the meeting. Mrs Reynolds at the piano as a musician known all over America and is perhaps without equal anywhere in the world of Christian evangelism as a religious singer and pianist. She made the music at the recent Southern Baptist Convention at Washington and when the great Billy Sunday visited Ft Worth several years ago her efforts at the piano contributed largely to the success of the meeting under the leadership of the famous preacher. Mrs. Reynolds is accomplished as a singer along with her attainments in music and her rich alto voice attuned to gospel songs is inspiring the great crowds.

Mr. Reynolds as a song leader is equally celebrated. He is an aggressive leader and his success as director lies chiefly in his ability to get co-operation from the congregation. Mr. Reynolds is a great singer and perhaps enjoys a distinction accorded few singing evangelists in the work today. His work has been as extensive as his musical and vocal attainments.

Mr. Reynolds sings at each service for the congregation just preceeding the preaching service, with an appeal that is giving force to the spirit of the meeting.

The meeting will continue into next week, is the announcement of Rev. B. B. Blaylock, pastor of the church. Arrangements have been made to entertain visitors. Especially is this true of the young people with well defined committee work.

Says Interurban to Camern May Soon Become Possible

J. Frank Elder of Waco, representing the proposed interurban from Waco to Cameron, was in the city this morning conferring with local parties regarding the project.

He said that interest is being taken and that he expected to have the preliminary work completed by the latter part of the month. It is necessary to raise survey funds and for expense of determining whether the project is feasable. Cameron will be asked to subscribe its quota of the expense money.

The project has the active endorsement of the Commercial Club and a committee has been appointed to cooperate in the work.

EQUALIZATION BOARD IS APPOINTED.

The City Council in regular session Tuesday night among other matters appointed a board of equalization to go over the tax rolls for the current year. The committee was announced today as follows: J. T. Westmoreland, F. S. Lesovsky and J. E. Reno.

The council also took under advisement the matter of supressing speeding automobiles in Cameron and has issued an appeal to the citizenship to assist it in coping with this danger.

TEACHING AT BAYLOR.

W. J. Walker, who is a member of the faculty of Baylor University Summer School, spent the week-end with his family here, returning Monday night to Waco. Mr. Walker, in addition to his duties as a teacher in this great school, is taking a course in School Administration and "brushing" up along other lines of work preparatory to his duties as suprentendent of a good school in a good town for the coming session.

Mr. Charlie Mowdy was a Cameron visitor this week.

Miss Louise Hearrell is visiting in Georgetown this week.

NOTICE TO SPEEDERS.

Viewing with disfavor and alarm the growing dangers from continuous speeding and reckless driving of automobiles the City Council wishes to give notice that further disregard of the law regulating vehicle traffic will be punished and all offenders are warned that this increasing danger must be suppressed.

The city council also requests the assistance of the general public in suppressing fast and unlawful driving of cars and asks the people to advise J. E. Holtzclaw, city marshal, Mayor U. S. Hearrell, or the city attorney, S. M. Burns, Jr., of any violations of the law and to such information as will lead to the arrests and conviction.

With the co-operation of the citizenship this dangerous and unlawful practice can be stamped out and the council gives this notice with the earnest hope that the citizens will help. 10-2t

CAMERON STUDENTS GET ON HONOR ROLL

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS PROUD OF CAMERON YOUNG PEOPLE NOW ATTENDING THE GREAT COLLEGE

Austin, Texas, July 7.—The honor list of the University for the spring term has just been compiled. In computing the score of the students an A is counted as 12, a B as 9, a C as 6, a D as 3. The best one per cent of upperclassmen made scores of 64 up; the best one per cent of freshmen made scores of 63 up. The remaining groups made scores lower than these, but above 45 in the case of freshmen and 48 in the case of upperclassmen.

Students from Cameron on the honor list for the spring term are Anna Laurie Middleton and Jay Dean Howell.

MARRIED IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Word has reached Cameron of the marriage of Mrs. Lucy Hopkins to J. R. Bittle in Oklahoma City, June 29. Mrs. Hopkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. English of Cameron and is well known here, having at one time taught music in this city.

Mr. Bittle is a member of the police force in Oklahoma City. Mr. and Mrs. Bittle will be here in August to visit in the home of Judge and Mrs. English.

OCEAN AIR LINES IN FIVE YEARS

The facilities of the great Ford organization for building a type of light, speedy airships recently were offered the United States Government by Henry Ford. Predicting the future airship, he said: "Transoceanic airship travel, in ships notable for lightness and speed, rather than lifting power, will be common beyond comment in from three to five years. Berlin and London will be a day from New York, the Pacific will be crossed, and such ease of communication will go far toward breaking down the barriers of radical antipathy. It will promote one language, one creed."

"The airship, by promoting contact of peoples, would foster prejudice against war. I am ready to do anything I can to help the government. As in the past I will build without profit.

"The airship of the future will not be any one standard design, but will be a combination of the rigid dirigiyle with the airplane. Chief attention must be given to the development of a light and powerful motor, gases lighter than the air, and the reduction of weight even more than at present."

Mr. Ford has been experimenting with a motor suitable for such an airship.

ACTIVE MOSQUITO FIGHT IS SHOWING GOOD RESULTS

Good progress is being made by Inspector W. W. Culver in the preliminary survey in connection with the anti-malaria campaign now being put on here, according to W. E. Hardenburg, director of the campaign, who arrived in Cameron Tuesday.

"Mr. Culver already has killed millions of wiggle-tails which he has encountered in barrels, tubs, cans, wells and cisterns about private homes," said Mr. Hardenburg. "He reports that the people upon whom he has called so far have manifested great interest in the work and are co-operating to the fullest extent.

"Mr. Culver has the survey about two-thirds completed now and expects to finish it in a week or ten days. We expect the spray cans to be used in oiling will have arrived by that time, in which case, we will start oiling at once.

"In addition to the inspection work he is carrying on, Mr. Culver has also stocked about 25 wells and underground cisterns with the wiggle-tail destroying top minnow. A large number of pools have also been similarly stocked, Nearly half a mile of ditches also have been cleaned out.

"More of this work will be done from time to time."

In conclusion, Mr. Hardenburg urged that every housevife in the city make a weekly inspection of her premises to prevent breeding mosquitoes. He said barrels, tubs, cans, cisterns and wells were the things to watch most.

Thomason Speaking Tonight

Speaker of the House Here to Address the People in Interest of Candidacy-- Meeting at 9 O'Clock.

R. E. Thomason, Speaker of the House of Representatives and candidate for governor, will address the voters of Milam county on the court house lawn in Cameron beginning at nine o'clock tonight.

The speaking hour has been changed from 8:30 o'clock to 9 o'clock out of respect for the Baptist revival meeting which is now in progress. The church congregation which has averaged near 1000 people during the week will be dismissed by the evangelist in time for the speaking of Mr. Thomason.

The Thomason campagn committee will meet the candidate at the Santa Fe depot this afternoon when he arrives in Cameron from Giddings where he spoke this afternoon. The Cameron concert band will greet the candidate and reception committee with a concert on the court house lawn this evening preceeding the meeting. Mr. Thomason will be entertained at the Auditorium Hotel on his arrival here and will receive his friends and supporters and all who wish to meet him.

Giles L. Avreitt, chairman of the Thomason Campaign Committee, has just returned from Galveston and reports all arrangements made for the speaking. Mr. Thomason will be introduced by District Judge John Watson. The speaking will begin promptly a 9 o'clock.

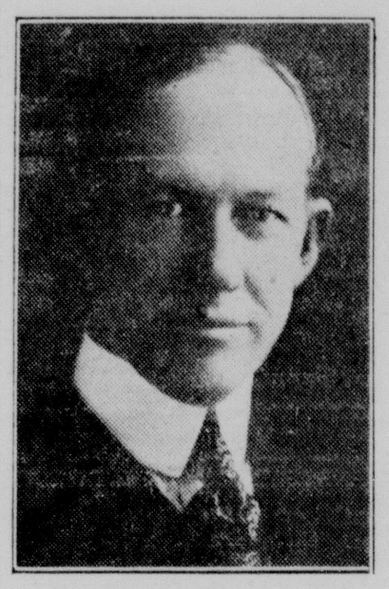

Mr. Thomason is on his way from a vigorous campaign in East Texas and from Cameron will make his way under speaking dates to north and central Texas where it is said he will spend the remainder of the campaign in a vigorous prosecution of his candidacy.

Mr. Thomason is a progressive, constructive democrat and his slogan is "less politics and more busines." He is pitching the campaign on a platform of progresive governmental issues. He is a good speaker and will entertain and isstruct his hearers tonight.

This will be the first appearance of Mr. Thomason in Milam county in the interest of his candidacy for governor. Many here are awaiting to hear him before making up their minds just how they will vote, having not made a decision for other candidates who have visited here.

Mr. Thomason wrote the famous zone law which drove liquor from the great army centers of the state during the war. He has always supported the prohibition cause and the cause of woman's suffrage, being one of the pioneer advocates of equal political rights for women.

This will be the only opportunity Milam county will have to hear Mr. Thomason speak during the campaign.

R. E. Thomason.

HARLAN-THOMAS.

Monday night at the Baptist parsonage, with Brother Blaylock officiating, Mr. Walter Thomas and Miss Sue Harlan were united in marriage. A Fall wedding had been anticipated by both families, but Mr. Thomas got a good position with a wholesale clothing company at Lampasas and was leaving on Monday night for his new field of work, and cupid persuaded them that a two-months separation was folly, so the young couple, in company with Miss Alta Mae Peele and Mr. George Thomas, went to the parsonage and were married. They then visited the two families for congratulations and good wishes before leaving on the midnight train for their future home.

Mr. Thomas is the son of Mrs. George A. Thomas of this city, and is a young man of sterling character, did his part in the World War in the naval department.

Miss Sue Harlan is the daughter of Mrs. Joe Harlan, now of Cameron. Miss Sue graduated from the High School at Calvert in 1917, and was in Baylor University last year, and she is a young lady of charming personality, pleasing manners, and loved by all who knew her.

The Herald and hosts of other friends wish for these young people all the best things of life as they journey along life's rough and rugged way.

Miss Ruth Herring of Waxahachie is a guest in the home of her brother, Mr. T. N. Herring.

Mrs. T. N. Herring and children came home Friday from quite an extended visit in Waxahachie. Her baby is very much improved.

Miss Estella Coleman left this week for a three weeks' visit to Sinton.

George Hooks of the A. & M. College, was a week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Jim Hooks.

Miss Mary Joe Harlan was the guest Tuesday of Miss Verna Roberts at San Gabriel.

Among those attending the all-day picnic and barbecue at San Gabriel Monday were, Mr. Jeff Kemp, Judge Gillis, Mr. Will Yates, Mr. U. S. Hearrell, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Van Tyson and children, Mrs. Willie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wilcerson, Mr. Jim Coleman and Miss Mildred Chambers.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A double wedding of interest to friends took place at the home of Mrs. C. L. Rogers in Alice Wednesday, June 3, 1920, when Rev J. W. Skinner, D. D. president of the Tex.-Mex, Presbyterian institute, Kingsville, performed the ceremony uniting Miss Margie Lee Rogers and Mr. James W. Manford and Miss Curran Randolph Rogers and Rev. S. Brooks McLane. The wedding was a quiet affair, with only a few relatives and closest friends present. After the ceremony both couples took the train for Corpus Christi. Mr. and Mrs. Manford will go to their home in Luling after a few days spent in San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. McLane will visit Mr. McLane's parents in Cameron and then spend two weeks at the after which they will make their home in Texas-Mexican Industrial Institute, where both of them taught during the past year.—Kingsville Record

The above account of the marriage of Mr. Brooks McLane will interest all the people of Cameron. Being the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McLane, born and raised here, and having been one of the few fine young men who has battled to educate himself is enough to shew the high esteem in which he is held. His work now as instructor in the Texas-Mexican institute is one of the most important fields of work in the South, and Brooks is making good and doing a wonderful work. The Herald and hosts of other friends wish for Mr. and Mrs. McLane all the blessings of life.

Mrs. J. S. Adams has returned to her home in Tyler after a visit with Mrs. R. G. Vaughn. Mrs. Vaughn accompanied Mrs. Adams to Tyler and from there will go to Alabama to visit relatives.

MUST EXTERMINATE RATS SAYS GODDARD TO CITY OFFICIALS

BUBONIC PLAGUE CAUSES WAR TO BE WAGED ON RATS SAYS OFFICIAL BBULLETIN

Austin, Texas, July 1.—Dr. C. W. Goddard, State Health officer, has sent the following Bubonic Plague regulation to every mayor and Health officer in the quarantine area as follows (50 miles inland from the gulf coast and Rio Grande and Sabine borders and a radius of 100 miles around Galveston and Beaumont):

In accordance with the modified quarantine proclamation issued by the Governor of this state and becoming a law June 27, 1920, you are hereby officially notified that your city is considered within the prescribed area and subject to the general rules and regulations promulgated by the Texas State Board of Health Department, viz:

A complete rat extermination campaign must be inaugurated at once in each incorporated town and city within the said prescribed quarantine area

Dr. Goddard suggests that all towns and communities in Texas, tho not included in this area, employ every known to eradicate rodents, including poison; but in case of poison it must be placed in such a manner that the children cannot possibly get hold of it.

The rat menace is one of the big problems confronting the people of Texas at this time. The Plague-spreader, the rot, is a destructive, filthy animal and spreads other diseases than the plague, which is the most terrible of all pestilences which have afflicted man, as a high percentage of the cases prove fatal. Europe alone lost over 25,000,000 people during the fourteenth century and India has lost several million during the last few years. Public safety demands the destruction of rats. It is costing Texas millions of dollars every year to feed her rat population.

Scranton, Pa., July .—In a collision between three cars on the Lackawanna & Wyoming Valley Railroad near South Pittston Station at 7:30 o'clock eighteen people are reported killed and 100 injured. The accident occurred near South Pittston when lightning struck a telegraph pole along the line of the track and the pole fell over the tracks in front of a car bound for Scranton.

A moment later a limited car crashed into the rear of the car that struck the pole and a third car telescoped the second car. All three cars were piled in a heap.

Many of those killed and injured had attended the annual games of the Calodonian Clubs of Scranton and Pittston at Valley View Park this afternoon.

Most of the injured have been taken to the State hospital at Pittston.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS.

Eat less meat if you feel backache or have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

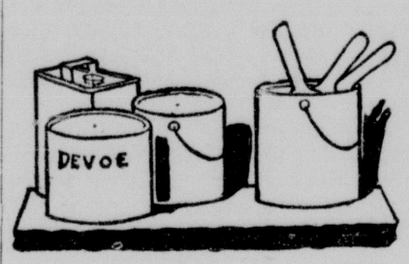

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and harmless and makes a delightful effervescent litha water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

THE bare unfinished walls of your garage are not only unsightly — but they fail to sufficiently protect against the blustering winds of winter and the scorching rays of a summer sun.

A few dollars spent for Cornell Wood Board, that takes the place of plaster, will avoid frozen radiators and end the discomfort of zero weather starting. In summer it will make your garage cool and comfortable.

"Cornell 32" for the Small Garage

Strong Cornell panels of 32-inch width are especially adapted for the small garage and other out buildings. For large rooms and broad partitions, the 48-inch width (called "Cornell 48") is recommended.

Cornell's triple sizing protects against moisture, contraction and expansion. Its mill-primed surface saves the cost and labor of a sizing coat. A single application of paint or calcimine gives a perfect spread.

SAN GABRIEL GOSSIP

By Mrs. J. S. Woody

June 29th—Since our last writing we've been recipient of another fine rain, preventing farm work until Friday. A light shower yesterday afternoon brings expressions of man's desire for several weeks of dry weather. Everything in this vicinity is looking beautiful.

H. M. Camp was in Cameron last Wednesday.

E. B. Phillips was here from Rockdale one day last week.

Freeman Gamble of Cameron, was with homefolks and friends in San Gabriel part of last week.

On last Wednesday afternoon, a gathering of friends and relatives formed one of the largest processions that we've ever seen to the Locklin lin Cemetery to pay the last tribute of respect to Mr. James A. Clark in placing to rest in that "City of the Dead."

In the stillest afternoon, the thump of a great apple is audible, falling from the mere necessity of ripeness. So it was in the afternoon of his life. He lived to the Patriarchal age of 83 years, and while the end was expected soon, only by his immediate family we realize that, at his age, the days are numbered at the best which somewhat prepares us for the shock that death always occasions.

His early life was passed in Arkansas, moving later to Texas, where he spent his last years. He had been twice married, his last wife—nee, Miss Mattie Orr—still survives him.

Mr. Clark was a most honored citizen of our village, a good neighbor, kind husband and father and a devoted Christian gentleman, ever honest in his dealings with his fellowman and a member of the Odd Fellows' Lodge. He was a member of long standing of the Christian Church and tho' his feeble steps barred his regular attendance at divine service thru his late years, his past life in his church work has been indelibly stamped on the memory of those who will sadly miss him.

He served his Master and he served his country, being a Confederate soldier, serving all four years of that war.

Seeking first, protection of his own soul, in living a Christian life, in giving service for a protection of his country and loved ones, other things were added as blessings. His property right lies in hundreds of acres of choice black land and a good home left to his family.

He was the father of seventeen children, eleven of whom survive him and five of whom were absent from funeral services on account of distance.

This service was held by his pastor, Rev. Roberts of San Gabriel.

The honorary pall bearers were: Rev. Sam Elliott of Thorndale and Messrs. J. H. Fulcher, Bill Jones, W. S. Glasscock, Hume Davis and Walter Clark (brother of deceased) of San Gabriel.

Active pall bearers were the three sons Willie, Harry and Jamie Clark, Warner Terry, John B. Willis and Will Baird.

The esteem in which he was held was pictured in the large offerings of beautiful flowers that adorned his mound.

Loving care was bestowed upon him by his family, they having done all that could be done for his comfort and strength. The untiring nursing and ever faithful watching over him, of his baby girl, Miss Beatrice, promotes special praise from neighbors and friends in the loathfulness of giving him up and eforts toward retention of one she loved—"her father."

A name, that time can work no marks of change in the memory of of those left to mourn him, who bore it. We know they realize that a dreary sea now flows between but; the Christian's trust—Heaven's best gift to man—makes the heart strong and calm mid troubles and we must know that God holds supreme control and that time's wind will soon waft each of us onto a similar threshold where we shall answer to our name on the same roll call to stand in the presence of our Master.

May we only leave behind us a name that friends may feel as they can say of him, that "Heaven's eternal year is his."

In the midst of their sorest trial we offer sympathy to his loved ones.

Mrs. Lucy Murry of Daronzette, Texas, and Willie Clark of Lampasas, were called home last Tuesday by the death of their father, Mr. James A. Clark.

Others attending the funeral were Messrs. Sam Elliott, Sam Clement, Arthur Young and little son, Bob, Sharp Young and Miss Minnie Young of Thorndale.

Mrs. James A. Clark, who had been in the home of her daughter in Oregon, was called home by the sudden illness of her husband.

Mrs. Lindsey is on the sick list at present.

Mrs. Will Richardson and little daughters arrived Sunday from Houston to spend awhile with relatives here.

Murrell and Felton Camp returned Friday from Arizona. where they made claim to the per capita share allotted in the government lands of that state.

Little Miss Augusta Felton is visiting this week in Temple.

Branch Lewis of Rockdale was in our village Thursday.

DeLeslie Richardson is on the complaining list.

Dr. Lawrence of Thorndale was in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. Warren and family motored over from Thorndale Sunday afternoon.

Frank Orr of Uvalde, attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jim Clark last Wednesday.

Messrs. Hefley and Wallace Young of Thorndale were visitors in our village Monday evening.

What "Best By Test" Means to the Housewife.

The value of any article can be judged only by a direct comparison of that article with other articles of the same kind.

For instance—you may think some special brand of baking powder is best. That doesn't prove anything. The only way you can be sure of Baking Powder superiority is by an actual test against all other brands.

It isn't necessary, however that the housewife go to the trouble and expense of such an investigation herself.

Such tests have already been made—and made by experts in the value of Baking Powder.

Calumet Baking Powder received highest awards at the World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France. There can be but one answer to this—Calumet is best—by test—and best by the most exacting test it is possible to make.

Any housewife familiar with this fact can rest absolutely assured that when buying Calumet she is obtaining the best Baking Powder it is possible to manufacture.

DISHONORING THE PRESIDENCY

The world of abuse which has been heaped upon President Wilson for partisan purposes is dishonoring the Presidency more than it is hurting the present Chief Executive. It has puzzled many people that the mass of American citizens are willing to stand for such disgraceful treatment of an honest man, whose only aim has been a conscientious effort to do what appeared right to him.

It is a useful thing for us all to realize that no currupt man has ever ocupied the high office of the people, and that none can do so unless elected by a majority of his fellow men, as expressed in the electoral college. To decry an admittedly honest man is to open the bars to a crook, because when a real scoundrel is justly denounced he will be able to point to the rabid denunciation of former good men.

Richard Spillane, in Commerce and Finance, tells of an incident along this line, saying:

"There was a representative in Congress from Texas twenty odd years ago named Samuel T. Lanham, who later became Governor of the Lone Star State. Between him and a newspaper man at that time living at Galveston there was quite a friendship. On one of the Congressman's visits to the Oleander city the newspaper man, who is somewhat emotional and sometimes given to strong expression, spoke to him glowingly of a book he had been reading, 'Prue and I.'

"'I'll have to get a copy,' said Mr. Lanham.

"'Don't bother,' said the newspaper man. 'You are going up state tomorrow. I'll be on the train with you. I'll bring the book along. After you read it you can sen dit back to me.'

"They journeyed together the statesman reading and occasionally stopping to talk with his companion over some passage in the book that pleased him particularly.

"Tiring of reading the two men talked of men and things. McKinley was president. Politics is the chief staple of conversation—or was—in male circles in Texas.

"The newspaper man at one stage launched upon a bitter arraignment of the President. He spoke of the trusts, of Mark Hanna, of the debasement of the administration to the money power and he made some remarks about Mr. McKinley that were very strong.

"'My friend, said Mr. Lanham, 'I must ask you to stop. I will not sit beside you and listen to an attack upon the character of the President of the United States. I do not agree with Mr. McKinley politically. He and I are far apart in our views. But he is an honest man, a good man. He could not be otherwise. It is shocking that in this country of ours gross things are permitted to be said about our Chief Executives.

"'We never have had other than a worthy man President of the United States. It is not possible in my belief, that we could have any other. There is an atmosphere about the great office such as, I believe, there is around no other office on earth. I believe if a bad man were elected to the presidency the sanctity of his duties, the responsibilities vested in him, would make a good man of him.

"'Never doubt your president. He may err or you may think he errs but never doubt him, never say a word in derogation of his motives or his character.

"'I, for one, will never listen to attack upon a president without protest no matter how wide apart we may be politically and I will not sit with you if you say another word reflecting upon Mr. McKinley.

"'If what I have said offends you I am very sorry but further than that I have no apology to offer.'

"The newspaper man was silent only a few moments after the congressman ceased speaking.

"Then he said: 'Offend me? No, I thank you. You have done a service to me, a service I will never forget,, for never again, so long as I live will I say a word in aspersion of the Chief Magistrate of our country.'

"And though he has differed at times from all of the presidents since Mr. McKinley's day, he has never forgotten that pledge to Samuel Lanham or ceased to honor the man who made clear to him one of commonest sin of American citizenship."

FARMER'S INCOME SUBJECT TO TAX

Gains for 1919 Must Be Figured Under U. S. Law—Returns Due March 15.

LAND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE.

Necessary Farm Expenses May Be Deducted—Special Form for Farm Income—Cash or Accrual Basis for Computing.

A farmer, shopkeeper, or tradesman must figure up his net income for 1919; and if the farm or business income plus his other income was sufficient to require an income tax return a complete return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue by March 15.

A farmer should ascertain the gross income of his farm by computing all gains derived from the sale or exchange of his products, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold.

Farm Expenses.

From his gross income a farmer is allowed to charge off all of his necessary expenses in the conduct of the farm during the year. These include costs of planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing. In addition to these costs he may deduct money spent for ordinary farm tools of short life bought during the year, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Also, the cost of feed purchased for his live stock may be treated as an expense in so far as this cost represents actual outlay, but the value of his own products fed to animals is not a deductible item.

Other farm expenses allowable are the cost of minor repairs on buildings (but not the dwelling house), on fences, wagons and farm machinery; also bills paid for horseshoeing, stock powders, rock salt, services of veterinary, insurance (except on dwelling house), gasoline for operating power and sundry other expenses which were paid for in cash.

As to hired help, all the productive labor is a deductible expense; but the wages of household servants, or help hired to improve the farm, as in tree planting, ditching, etc., cannot be claimed against earnings. A farmer is not allowed to claim a salary for himself or members of his family who work on the farm.

Wear and Tear.

Purchase of farm machinery, wagons, work animals, etc., also the cost of construction or extension of buildings, silos, fencing, etc., should be considered additional investments in the farm and are not proper deductions against income.

A reasonable allowance may be claimed for wear and tear on farm buildings (except the farmhouse), fences, machinery, work animals, wagons, tanks, windmills and other farm equipment which is used in the conduct of the farm.

As to autos and tractors, the cost of these is not an expense, although the cost of their upkeep is an allowable deduction, if the machines are used exclusively for farm purposes and not for pleasure. Also, in such cases, a deduction for wear and tear is allowed.

Farm Losses.

The loss of a growing crop is not a proper deduction from income, inasmuch as the value of the crop had not been taken into gross income. The loss of a building or of machinery through storm, lightning, flood, etc., is an allowable deduction, but care should be used to ascertain the correct loss sustained, as restricted by income tax regulations.

No deduction is allowed in the case of loss of animals raised on the farm, but a loss is deductible from gross income if the animals had been purchased for draft or breeding purposes.

Shrinkage in weight or value of farm products held for favorable market prices cannot be deducted as a loss, for the reason that when such products are sold the shrinkage will be reflected in the selling price.

Sale of Farms and Land.

The value of agricultural lands has been jumping during the past few years, and during 1919 many owners sold out part or all of their lands at big profits. All such gains constitute income and must be taken into the net income for the year.

Any person who sold part of a farm or ranch, or part of a parcel of land, must also show any gains realized by the sale.

The method of figuring gains and losses on such transactions is prescribed in the Income Tax regulations, copies of which may be secured from Internal Revenue Collectors.

Forms for Returns.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has issued an improved Form 1040F for the use of farmers. This form, together with Form 1040A or 1040, will give the farmer explicit information as to how to properly figure his net income for 1919.

There are two methods of figuring a farmer's income tax return this year. He may make his return on the basis of the difference between the money and goods received for his products and the cash paid out for actual allowable farm expenses within the year. Or he may make his return on the accrual basis, which means computing the receipts and expenses that pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years.

MANY SUGGESTIONS FOR IDEAL SECTION

The best thought of the highway engineers of America is being given to the drafting of specifications for the "ideal section" to be built somewhere along the Lincoln Highway with funds provided by the United States Rubber Company.

The Lincoln Highway Association is receiving hundreds of suggestions from engineers in every part of the United States, indicating a deep interet in the project.

As was expected a wide diversity of opinion as regards the specifications for such an "ideal section" is being indicated. As rapidly as possible the officials of the Association are tabulating the replies and suggestions received and these will be subjected to the careful scrutiny of a competent Board of fifteen of the most representative and experienced highway authorities of the United States. The personnel of this Board will be announced soon by the Association.

It is clearly apparent that the majority of the engineers who have made suggestions feel that a right-of-way wider than those now being provided is desirable if the future increase of highway transportation is to be anticipated and provided for. Permanent monolithic pavement is the almost unanimous verdict of those so far heard from.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Insist On Getting Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts made by the Ford Motor Company. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. These imitation parts are not even made from the same grade of steel, or under the same formulas used by the Ford Motor Company. They are counterfeit parts. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend, and they generally are from twenty-five to one hundred per cent lower in quality.

The Authorized Ford Dealer is your protection. As such, we handle nothing but Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in a way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Every part is the same as its duplicate in your Ford Car or Ford Truck.

Our stock of parts is complete. And our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

PROBABLY NO SECOND PRIMARY NECESSARY

The candidacy of Pat Neff for Governor grows steadily stronger. Scores of people in Milam and adjoining counties who previously were undecided or inclined toward one of the other candidates, after hearing the masterly address of Mr. Neff delivered in Cameron and at Davillo on June 21st. are now actively supporting him. From every part of the state comes word of accessions to the Neff banner. Without doubt he will lead in the first primary, and his continued gain in strength indicates that he will come out with a majority of all the votes and dispense with the necessity of a second primary.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

WATER WORKS MAN GIVES OUT FACTS

"I have been trying for years to get something that would relieve me of my troubles and have found it at last in Tanlas," said Alfred Jolly, of 3291 Quitman street, Denver, Colo., and an employee of the water works department of that city.

"For a long time," he continued, "my stomach was in such an awful fix that I could eat hardly a thing without being in misery afterwards. Even the lightest foods would bloat me up with gas and I was constantly belching up sour, undigested food that at times would almost choke me, and often I would get so dizzy and light headed that I would almost fall down, and I would get so nervous that it was almost impossible for me to rest at night. I suffered agony wretched condition that I was hardly fit for a thing.

"After trying nearly everything I could hear of I took Tanlac, and it sure hit the spot and has made a different man of me. My appetite is splendid, my nerves steady, I sleep like a log at night, have gained eight pounds and am in better shape than I have been in years."

"Tanlac is sold in Cameron by New Cameron Drug Co., in Rockdale by Baldridge Bros., in Milano by E. C. Smith and in Burlington by the New Drug Store."

THE BETTER PART

By VICTOR REDCLIFFE.

"So you and Cora have decided to embark upon the sea of matrimony, Brill?"

"I am happy and fortunate in saying 'yes.'"

"Cora is a fine girl," declared Myron Blair. "I'd ought to know, for she is my sister-in-law. She will make you a good wife, only—one piece of advice, cut out the mother-in-law."

"I hardly understand you," spoke Wallace Brill, with manifest resentment.

"You will when you get farther along in your experience. See here, as relatives prospective by courtesy, I can be plain with you. If one principle was instilled into my nature by prejudice and observation it was the mother-in-law problem. When I married Bella Mayne I made up my mind to run no risks of having a fussy, meddlesome old lady on my hands. Of course I said nothing to Bella. Of course I treated Mrs. Mayne with all due respect. Firmly, persistently, though, I adopted a policy of procedure that set up the bars against any mother-in-law invasion. I settled down in a house at the farther end of the village on purpose, so Mrs. Mayne wouldn't find it convenient to run in on us every day. When the two children came along I saw to it that they didn't come under her rule and influence in any way. No, sir! I tell you, Brill, the man who wants a well-ordered household must keep the mother-in-law at a distance. Hello! There's a man I want to see on business," and the voluble speaker darted off.

Wallace was glad. In another moment he would have been unable to control his indignation. To him the mother of his bride expectant was almost a part of herself, and a person for whom he felt a dutiful and respectful consideration. Then, again, Wallace knew something of "the system" of Myron Blair and its results. It had not worked, except for the selfish benefit of shallow, self-opinionated Blair. As Wallace was well aware it had brought misery and unhappiness to others—victims who made no complaint, but silently experienced their wretchedness because they were of a noble, self-sacrificing nature. When Blair installed the daughter in a home two miles away, Mrs. Mayne experienced a loneliness that might have been easily avoided. When Blair jealously restricted the children to only occasional formal visits to their grandmother, it almost broke her heart. The absence of her mother at critical junctures in her life meant suffering and a broken constitution for Bella, and the boastful, insensate Blair fancied that as a model disciplinarian he was a decided success.

Wallace Brill had not known a mother's care from early childhood. When he began to pay attention to Cora Mayne it seemed as though her mother came to fill a precious place in his life.

Very careful was Mrs. Mayne to refrain from intruding her personality or her views upon this new prospective son-in-law, but she bestowed many a grateful look upon him and her old, wearied heart warmed toward him, as he clearly showed that he not only desired, but cherished her interest and counsel in the problems that confronted Cora and himself on the threshold of their matrimonial venture.

Wallace was doing well in a business way. He had been thrifty and had accumulated sufficient to enable him to start out in life with a home of his own. When he first spoke to Cora of this it was in the presence of her mother.

"Well, I settled about a lot today," he announced in his brisk, pleasant way. "I say, mother, there's one disappointment. I have tried to get as near as possible to the old homestead here, but the only vacant lot that fitted to my money acquirements was two squares down the street."

"That—that is not far, is it, Wallace?" spoke the old lady. Her tones were tremulous.

"If you will put on your spectacles, mother," went on Wallace, "we'll all draw up to the table and look over some plans for a new house I got from the architect today. "There," as he settled her in the most comfortable chair and directly at his side, "with such counsellors as you precious two, I'll warrant we'll have a regular little palace."

With his pencil Wallace went over the plans—parlor, dining room, kitchen, bedrooms, closets, and then he indicated a special apartment.

"I'm throwing myself on that room," emphasized Wallace with a token of rare pride in his tones. "Sunlight on three sides, ventilation perfect, convenient to all the other rooms in the house. What do you think of it, mother?"

"Your den, I suppose?" said Mrs. Mayne.

"Oh, no," replied Wallace promptly. "That's your room, mother."

"My room!" faltered the old lady, all a tremble.

"All your own, and no one else's," declared Wallace. "How do you like it?"

Mrs. Mayne fixed her faded eyes upon the speaker with a devotion and gratitude that thrilled him mightily. Then upon his shoulder sank her silvered head. And then, her arm about him, joining in the grateful sobbing of that dear old soul, Clara Mayne clasped both in her arms and Wallace Brill felt that life was indeed sweet.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Continued Southern Farm Prosperity Dependent on Cutting Production Cost Through Food Making and Saving

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"Tens of thousands of farmers in the South will face the problem of making cotton under heavy weevil infestation for the first time in 1920. Their success or failure under these new conditions will be absolutely dependent on the degree that there is food, grain and forage produced on their farms this year," said H. G. Hastings, president of both the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Southeastern Fair.

"A few weeks ago the newspapers carried the report that an Alabama county was preparing to erect a monument to the boll weevil, because of the good the weevil had done them in forcing them out of the 'all-cotton' poverty-producing rut, into the prosperity that always follows a diversity of crops and the production on home acres of every pound possible of food, grain and forage supplies needed by the family and live stock.

"Our good people here in the South have never, until very recently, taken the home or family vegetable garden seriously as a source of food supply. It has been looked on strictly as a side issue, something of little importance, something to be attended to the last thing on the place. The home garden, rightly handled, can be made to produce half the food needed by the family and practically without money cost.

"The average 'lick and promise' sort of a garden has little value. To be of real value the garden must be planned for, really prepared for, planted right and kept cultivated through the season, and cultivated whenever needed. That kind of a garden will keep its owner's table well supplied with an abundance of healthful food seven or eight months in the year, as well as furnishing an abundance of canned and dried vegetables for winter use.

"Every mess of vegetables direct from garden to table, every can or jar of home-canned vegetables from closet shelves, makes a hole in that store bill that is always a terror when 'settling' time comes.

"Good home gardens have been real life savers to thousands of southern farmers who have gone 'flat broke' trying to meet store bills. A good garden will cut the store bill until its size is negligible. Give the garden a fair chance and a square deal in 1920 and the result will be agreeably surprising."

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to nomal activity, also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and primary organs clean thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

ALKALI IN SOAP RUINS HAIR

Most soap contains free alkali, which is very injurious to the delicately constructed scalp, and causes the hair to become dry and harsh. Careless and incorrect shampooing frequently causes the pores of the scalp to become clogged and thus the hair roots fail to receive nourishment and air. In this state the tissues are weak and become an easy prey to attacking germs such as dandruff.

Great care should be taken in choosing a shampoo which is free from any injurious substance, is pure, cleansing, mildly antiseptic and tonic in effect. There is such a shampoo on the market—Splenlox Cocoanut Oil Shampoo. Its beneficial effects have aided in renewing health and beauty in the hair of many men and women.

A few hair health and beauty rules:

1. Wash and disinfect your brush and comb regularly.
2. Tight hats or methods of hair dressing that bind the hair interfere with scalp circulation.
3. Give the hair frequent air and sunlight baths; but do not expose to the direct rays of the sun when it is wet.
4. At the first sign of dandruff apply Splenlox Guaranteed Dandruff Remedy regularly till the scalp responds to the treatment.
5. Shampoo regularly—men once a week, women once a fortnight—with Splenlox Cocoanut Oil Shampoo.

Splenlox products are absolutely pure and reliable and are scientifically prepared to promote health and beauty to the hair. Made by The Splenlox Co., Dallas and Philadelphia.

POLITICAL PROPOGANDA EXPLODED

Circular letters charging Pat Neff Candidate for Governor, with having been unfavorable to Woman Suffrage were recently sent through the mail to many of the women of Milam county, who will participate in the Democratic primaries. It appears that this character of political propaganda is resorted to by some of those active in behalf of Mr. R. E. Thomason, one of Mr. Neff's opponents. However, this charge against Mr. Neff's record on the woman suffrage question is quite completely exploded by more than four thousand men and women of Waco (neighbors of Mr. Neff and acquainted with his record) who make the following statement in print, to-wit:

"Mr. Neff has always been an advocate of Woman suffrage and has never opposed the same; and in all his public speeches where that question has been an issue, he has advocated it. He believes and has always believed that women should have the equal right to vote with the men."

The charge that Mr. Neff opposed Woman Suffrage is further refuted by the conceded fact that in his home city and county his support will be practically unanimous among the women as well as among the men.

JUDD G. DAVIS,
Chairman Milam County Neff Exctv. Committee.

ORGANIZE MILAM COUNTY FARMERS HERE JULY 13

MOVEMENT TO IMPROVE MARKETING CONDITIONS, WOULD SELL DIRECT TO SPINNERS.

Announcement is made from the headquarters at Corpus Christi that a branch organization of the United Cotton Growers Association will be organized in Cameron July 13th.

One of the principal objects of the association is to sell direct to the spinners and thus increase the receipts to the farmer.

The United Cotton Growers of America held its first annual meeting in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the21st of April, with an attendance of 576 representative farmers from South Texas. Since this first annual meeting, we have thoroughly organized fifteen counties in the state by electing the officers of the county association, including an Executive Committee of four men in each county. These County Executive Committees have charge of all warehouses to be erected in the counties, each county forming a separate unit in the Association. We have plans and specifications practically ready for the erection of these warehouses, all of which will be built of re-inforced concrete, in order that they may be permanent and that the insurance rate may be cut to the minimum. Our present plan contemplates a unit building 56 feet wide, 181 feet long, and 12 feet high, with the floor, ceiling pilasters built of re-inforced concrete, and filler walls to be built of brick 12 inches thick. This kind of a building, with sprinkler system installed, will give an insurance rate of about 63 cents on the contents and 32 cents on building. The difference between the insurance rates of this kind of a building and the ordinary warehouses as constructed now will pay for the re-inforced concrete build ing within five or six years' time. Owing to the nearness of the year's cotton season, it will be impossible to have these buildings ready for this year's crop, but we intend to go ahead with the work and have them ready for the crop of 1921.

We are now negociating with the spinners of the east to the end that we may sell the present crop of our members direct to the spinners, in line with one of the purposes for which this association was formed. This can be done by contracting the cotton at the compresses of the country, or contracting for delivery at Houston, Texas. As soon as plans have been completed with the spinners, the association can avail itself of the opportunity of selling direct to the spinners, thereby omitting the profits of the middleman and saving them for the producer.

We have practically completed the plans to cover the balance of the cotton counties of Texas. At the present time there are 172 counties in the state that produce cotton in sufficient quantity to be reported by the Government in its annual ginners' report. It is our aim to have all of these counties organized under the direction of the United Cotton Growers Association by January 1, 1921, and that date should show 100,000 members in this association who have banded themselves together for the purpose of co-operating to the end that all cotton grown by them will be housed and a selling bureau established for the purpose of selling direct to the spinner all cotton grown by the members of this Association. When we consider the fact that the damage to the 1919 crop is estimated as high as 1,000,000 bales worth on the present market, the sum of $200,000,000.00, it is high time that the farmers were organizing to save this fearful waste and add this sum to their profits, rather than their losses.

The time is not far distant when all of the gins in this country will compress the cotton as soon as ginned. The up-to-date gin factories of the country are now building what they term gincompresses, which, when installed in the gins will compress cotton to a density of 22 lbs. to the cubit foot. Cotton will then be weighed, sampled and stapled at the gin, and these grades and weights will follow the bale to the spinner without re-weighing or re-sampling. We are nearing the time when the pernicious sampling system by cutting bales of cotton will cease. This sampling system in the beginning was merely a crude way to determine the character of the bale of cotton, but it has now reached the most pernicious of any stealage system ever inflicted upon the unsuspecting public. The day has come when the system must cease, and it will cease when the gins of the country begin to compress cotton. The ginners might just as well face the fact that within a short time they will be compelled to put in these gin compresses and when installed the producer will simply pay the ginner for ginning and also for compressing and when this is an accomplished fact in all the gins of the land, then we can save cotton and out of all the waste and damage that has been eating up the profits of the farmers of this country.

This Association has committed itself to this proposition—"Better ginning, gin compression, warehousing, financing and marketing of the cotton crop."

COX AND ROOSEVELT NOMINATED

Ohio Governor Chosen at End of Spectacular Fight----Long Deadlock Leaves Scars of Battle as Wet Candidate Wins Victory---Roosevelt Named by Acclamation----Bryan Silent After Defeat.

San Francisco. Cal., July 6.—James M. Cox, three times Governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency at 1:40 o'clock this morning by the Democratic National convention in the break-up of one of the most prolonged deadlocks in the history of the national political parties.

Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated for Vice-President by acclamation this afternoon. Supporters of Governor Cox won way to the nomination by persistent battering at the Palmer and McAdoo forces in many States throughout a long series of shifting and rallies which left now one and then another of the candidates in the lead.

On the opening ballot Friday the Ohio governor was in third place. He soon passed Palmer, however, and on the twelfth ballot went ahead of McAdoo. Then began a see-sawing between the Cox and McAdoo totals which at the end of the thirty-ninth roll call at midnight found the two virtually the same.

End on Forty-Fourth.

On the forty-second ballot the accession of most of the Palmer strength to Cox put him well ahead and after that great and little State delegations went into the Cox column in a procession On the forty-third he got a majority for the first time of all the votes cast and on the forty-fourth he was plunging toward the required two-thirds when Colorado changed its vote to him and made the nomination obvious. It was made unanimous on motion of Sam B. Amidon of Kansas. a leader of the McAdoo forces.

A terrific uproar followed. The whole mass of delegates threw themselves into a wild final demonstration, greater than any of the ogies of noise that had preceeded.

The nominating of a presidental candidate wound up the real business so far as scores of delegates and alternates were concerned and the outgoing trains had a great part of the convention forces aboard them. Somebody suggested that the outgoing train be polled.

The galleries, too, had lost a great deal of their interest and there were thousands of empty seats. Secretary Roosevelt. when told that he looked like a good prospect for the vice presidential nomination said:

"I can't afford the honor. I have five children."

Nominations.

Governor Stewart of Montana and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee were placed in nomination for the vice presidency in the first two hours. Opposition to Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York had developed from the Tammany organization.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy. was placed in nomination for the Vice Presidency by Timothy L. Ansberry. a former representative in Congress from Ohio, who sat in the convention as a District of Columbia delegate.

Mr. Roosevelt's nomination from the District of Columbia instead f New York State was accounted a bit of political strategy which would meet the demands of the Western delegates for a candidate not accounted a member of the Tammany forces of New York. Mr. Roosevelt has had his political difficulties with Tammany for several years.

Edward L. Doheny of California was placed in nomination by Lorin A. Handley of Los Angeles.

Senator Nugent of Idaho nominated former Judge James H. Hanley of Boise, Idaho, for the Vice Presidency.

Former Governor Dunne of Illinois nominated James Hamilton Lewis for the Vice Presidency.

David R. Francis of St. Louis. former Ambassador to Russia. was placed in nomination for the Vice Presidency by E. P. Rosenberger of Montgomery. Mo.

Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him, Roosevelt's name went over with a band wagon movement. during which all other candidates were withdrawn.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Dunn; Governor Stewart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward L. Doheny of California. and former Governor Hawley of Idaho were withdrawn and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee. in person, announced that he would not be a contender, as did David R. Francis of Missouri. Nomination of W. T. Vaughan of Oregan. who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Colby Declines Honor.

Bainbridge Colby. Secretary of State, who was considered as a candidate and refused to allow his name to be used, finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted."

Never was there very strong opposition to the nomination of Roosevelt and the seconding by Governor Smith of New York from the Tammany delegation clinched it.

David R. Francis of Missouri moved that the rules be suspended and that Roosevelt be nominated by acclamation. The resolution was adopted with a great chorus of ayes and three cheers for Cox and Roosevelt.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination and Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the Democratic National Committee was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

After its tumultuous session of forty-four ballots the convention reassembled at noon today to finish its work. There was at first a delay utilized by the Cox managers to hear from the Governor about his wishes on the vice presidential nomination. H. H. Moore of Youngstown. Ohio, who managed the Governor's fight. let it be known that Cox was willing to leave the selection of his running-mate to the convention. With that the forces easily and quickly coalesced and after Roosevelt's nomination applauded an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Josephus Daniels.

Nominee Disappears.

It was exactly 3:15 o'clock when the convention with loud cheers nominated Mr. Roosevelt with a loud shout and the first party cry, "Cox and Roosevelt," rang out.

Mr. Roosevelt left the convention hall just before he was nominated, but after his nomination was a certainty, to a number of friends he recalled that before the convention he prophesied that the convention would be "unbossed" and declared that his prophesy had come true.

Mr. Roosevelt went to his hotel and from there to the battleship New Mexico to dine with Secretary Daniels, his chief.

The convention wanted to hear Roosevelt and Chairman Robinson instead presented Secretary Daniels, who made a speech.

During the closing moments of the convention the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted, with a resolution expressing the thanks and appreciation of the convention to the city of San Francisco.

COX ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION; READY FOR THE BIG CAMPAIGN

Nominee is Newspaper Man and Son of Toil. Gets News While Waiting at his Office--Kisses Wife and Visits Mother's Grave---Dayton Rejoicing.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—In a telegram to the democratic national convention accepting the presidential nomination and thanking the delegates for their support, Gov. James M. Cox today intimated he is ready to make an extensive speaking campaign in every state.

His close friends said he will urge his political advisers against a "front porch" campaign such as Senator Harding, the republican presidential nominee, expects to make at his home in Marion.

The governor said, however, that no plans have been formulated and the campaign will not be discussed officially until democratic national committee members and other party leaders return from San Francisco.

Although he said he not considered the matter, he indicated he had no intention of resigning as governor of Ohio to devote all his time to the campaign. He pointed out that Senator Harding had announced that he would not resign from the senate.

Governor Cox spent the day receiving old friends at his home, Trail's End, near Dayton, and in his newspaper office, the Dayton News.

Tonight he motored twenty-five miles to Middleton, Ohio, to make a brief address to his friends and neighbors of his youthful days when he was a newsboy, printer's devil, school teacher and reporter in that city. Hundreds of telegrams, including congratulations from President Wilson and Senator Harding, were received today, but it was a physical impossibility for the democratic nominee to answer many of them. Several volunteer clerks were kept busy opening them.

News of Nomination.

The Ohio Governor spent yesterday and last night listening to reports of progress of the convention. He received the first news of his nomination from the Associated Press in his newspaper office. Together with Mrs. Cox and a few close friends and his newspaper associates, he had been watching the reports closely since the opening of the convention last wek.

When the flash came announcing his nomination the governor sat for a minute as though stunned.

Then he crossed the room and kissed his wife. His next act was to go to the composing room of his newspaper and shake hands with his printers. Later he walked several blocks to the home of his closest personal friend, John A. McMahon, prominent Dayton attorney, to whom he wished personally to break the news.

Visits Mother's Grave.

After a light breakfast the governor visited the grave of his mother. She died several years ago, after living to see him inaugurated governor for his first term.

Plans are being made by the Dayton Chamber of Commerce for a jollification in Dayton at a later date, probably July 15.

Employes of his newspaper earlier in the day sent the governor a huge boquet of flowers. Moving pictures were made of Governor Cox when he climbed the steps of the composing room of his newspaper to receive the congratulations and resolutions of support of his printers— all union men.

Up From the Ranks.

In his talk to his newspaper employes, Governor Cox said:

"The greatest gift that the Almighty God can give to any man in public life is to permit him to come into the world under circumstances which enable him to know the life status of the man who works. Providence was good to me—it was my high privilege to come through the ranks. I know the torment of the boy who is without funds, and I know his anxiety as to how he will get an education that will help him achieve his ambitions. If nomination means election, I will take to the White House this best equipment for a man in public life—experience in the ranks with those who toil."

KEEP RECORD STRAIGHT

Some of those who are perhaps not familiar with the record, or who are perhaps more or less indifferent about keeping the record straight are seeking, through inuendo or otherwise, to create the impression that Pat Neff is running for Governor without a platform, or with an indefinite and evasive statement of the principles and policies upon which his candidacy is based.

The record is that Mr. Neff's platform setting forth his views on public questions was announced in his opening speech at Waxahachie, was presented through the public press, has been discussed in his numerous speeches during the campaign and may be had on application to Mr. Neff's law office at Waco. His platform, as so promulgated, definitely and uncompromisingly declares for:

Good roads; more efficient schools, vocational education and better paid teachers; a better agricultural policy; equalization and reduction of taxation and economy in office and reduction in public expenditures; prohibition, woman suffrage and the purity of the ballot; the opening up and improvement of idle agricultural lands; improvement of the Texas livestock industry; encouragement of mid and factory industries in Texas; and many other progressive policies.

Why not keep the records straight?

TICK LAW CHANGE WILL HAMPER WORK SAYS INSPECTOR

ILLEGAL MOVEMENT OF CATTLE MAY PROLONG QUARANTINE STATEMENT MADE HERE.

A very serious condition has developed in the tick-eradication work in this state due to the finding of the Court of Criminal Appeals in the J. M. Leslie case, and the enactment of the new law by the recent Legislature to ovecome the deficiences found, says a Federal officer engaged in this work in this part of Texas. The new law is cumbersome and slow of action and gives the small cow man the opportunity to delay in dipping his few head of cattle and thus delays and damages the work in every county doing active tick eradication work.

The new law changes certain phases of the enforcement of the dipping regulations and makes it slow to get law enforcement upon these uninformed or unfavorable to the work through ignorance of the true purport of the work. While a great amount of excellent work is under way in tick eradication, yet it is not along the line of getting definite results in a given time. Milam county has had two years of tick-eradication work and the officials in charge of the work have used every effort to get the county clear of the cattle-fever-tick, yet through the opposition of the small cattle owners we may have to yet do another year's work unless we wake up and get the remaining infested and exosed herds regularly dipped for the rest of the season.

There are ten inspectors in the county on regular duty and they have their hands full without having to pay personal visits to cattle owners over the county urging them to dip their cattle. It is the sensible thing, it appears to us, for every cattle owner, large or small, to get all their cattle dipped and get thru with this task.

The new law makes it compulsory upon cattle-owners to dip all tick-infested or exposed cattle every fourteen days, and this also applies, according to the new law, to all cattle or premises which have been tick infested within the past nine months. If the authorities have to go into the courts in order to compel the dipping of these cattle we can not expect the work to continue next year for practically the entire season, but if everyone interested will give their hearty co-operation, voluntarily, the work can be completed this season.

This is the sensible thing for the cattle owners of this county to do and doing otherwise is the grossest of nonsense. Our people may as well understand that this work will be done regardless of cost or time taken to do it. The same Federal officer stated that this county will also have to demonstrate that the county will fully enforce the quarantine regulations before they can expect release from Federal quarantine of any part of the county.

There has been some illegal movement of cattle into the county from ticky-counties not doing tick-eradication work. This must stop immediately if we are to expect release from Federal quarantine, and the courts of the county must see that these violators are adequately prosecuted for their offenses. The people of Milam county must awake to this condition and see that the conditions are remedied. and this must not be delayed.

DODSON TELLS THE HORROR OF CALOMEL

You Don't Need to Sicken, Gripe, or Salivate Yourself to Start Liver.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated. You feel headachy, your stomach may be sour, your breath bad, your skin sallow and you believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start liver and bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling splendid. It is perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Cameron people recommend Doan's stronger proof of merit?

Ask your neighbor.

Melvin Weems, E. 2nd St., Cameron, says: "My kidneys had bothered me more or less for a long time. It seemed whenever I took a little cold or there was a sudden change There was a sediment in the secretions and they smarted and burned in the passage. My back got lame, and the muscles all through me were lame and sore. I had taken all kinds of medicines but didn't get any help at all. I called on the doctor here for advice and he told me to take Doan's Kidney Pills. I followed his advice and got a supply of Doan's and took them as directed. I am very proud to say Dona's Kidney Pills cured me and my kidneys have been strong and in good shape since then. I very gladly endorse Doan's Kidney Pills."

"THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING."

There is no question but that the Byrne Shorthand, taught in the Tyler Commercial College, is the greatest system in use today. It makes better stenographers in less time and with less cost than any other. It may be written either with a pencil or any typewriter. It has over 30 000 enthusiastic writers, it holds the world's record for speed in a given length of time, is most simple, legible and rapid system in use, as is shown from the following remarks by our students who first studied other systems:

"I take great pleasure in telling the public that the Byrne Shorthand is the only system. I previously studied Pitman for four months, used it in actual practice for four months. At the end of six weeks study of the Byrne, I was a better writer than I had ever been with the Pitman."

"I have been a Sloan-Duployan stenographer for 15 years; I found the system inadequate. I then took the Gregg, under Mr. Gregg of Chicago, but found it illegible. I then took up the Byrne, which I consider the stenographic marvel of the age."

"I first studied Pitman Shorthand, then took up the Byrne. and found the Byrne to be 35 per cent shorter and that it could be written at a much higher rate of speed and read like print."

"I studied Pitman for four months gave it up in disgust; then I took up Pernin and studied it almost night and day for six months, but was not competent to hold a position. I then took up the Byrne for three months, and find that I can hold any kind of a position."

"I graduated in Graham Shorthand, writing 100 words a minute, after 9 months study. After studying the Byrne Simplified, together with Byrne Practical Bookkeeping, for 4 months, I could write Byrne much faster and regard it superior to any other system."

"I thoroughly mastered 14 systems, seven of the most prominent Pitman systems, Gregg Chartier, Byrne, and four minor systems, and find the Byrne much easier to read, that it can be written with one and one-half times the speed that can be made with any of the other 13 systems."

"After studying six different Pitmantic systems, I was unable to hold an ordinary office job, but with five weeks study of the Byrne I went into the District Court and did reporting successfully, and was appointed official court stenographer."

Why study any system of Shorthand, other than the Byrne, when the Byrne can be learned in half the time or less, read with greater ease, and written at a higher rate of speed which means better salary and promotion? It does not cost half as much to complete a course in our school as it does one of the other systems in other schools. We hold exclusive right to teach the Byrne in this section. The author is the president of our school.

Fill in and mail to Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, for large free catalogue containing full indorsements and names and addresses of the above, and of others who have tried the other systems and abandoned them for the Byrne. Our Bookkeeping, Cotton Calssing and Telegraphy are as far superior to the other systems as is the Byrne Shorthand.

VETERAN TO GET PENSION INCREASE

COMPTROLLER REPORTS MORE FUNDS TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONG THOUSANDS ON THE ROLL

Confederate veterans will receive an increase in pension allotments according to a report from Comptroller Wigington to Speaker R. E. Thomason, received in Cameron today by County Judge W. G. Gillis.

The letter which is as follows will be of interest to veterans in Milam county:

"Hon R. E. Thomason,
Speaker, House of Representatives
Austin Texas.

Dear Sir:

"In compliance with a resolution passed by the House of Representatives June 8, I submit the following information relative to the Confederate Pension Fund:

"There are now 15,768 pensioners on the rolls, a decrease of 814 for same date last year. Pensioners have received $23.00 per quarter for the past five quarterly payments.

"Balance on hand at beginning of fiscal year ending Aug. 31. 1919, $505,071.45. Receipts during the $1,365,799.05. Disbursements for the year, $1 484,918.25.

At the close of last quarter, May 31, 1920, there was a balance of $753,043.46 in the State Treasury to the credit of the Confederate Pension Fund, with warrants outstanding to the amount of $362,664.

"With the apportionment for this quarter fixed at $23.00 there would remain in the Treasury at the close of this fiscal year possibly $40,0000.00. therefore I have increased the pay those who are enjoying this meager benefit may receive every dollar available.

The pension fund is equally distributed between all beneficiaries, and can be drawn upon only for the payment of Quarterly Pension Warrants and Mortuary Warrants issued after the death f the pensioner. Not one dollar of the Fund is expended for clerk hire, postage or other expense.

Respectfully submitted,
M. L. Wigginton,
State Comptroller.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK.

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It mkes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing it thru the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Paul Watson's Account of a Swimming Party.

"Yes, we had a swimming party and Mikey Wylie gave it. We call him 'Mikey'—and you can say we stayed in from nine to eleven if you want to. No, there were no girls; there was to have been, but every one had some excuse, so there were just ten boys. No, Mikey did not pay it. We all paid our own way, but you see when you make it a 'party' no one else can come in while we are. Oh, you can just add some more to it if you want to. Mikey's the best diver and Nelson Green the best and fastest swimmer. You just ask me some questions. Yes, we would have had a better time if we had had some girls along. I do not know which one I would have taken, but I reckon just the first one who came along. No, we did not go home with Mikey for breakfast. We went home."

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Last Friday afternoon between the hours of 4:30 and 6:30 Mrs. Charles Smith gave her two little sons, Charlie, Jr., aged four years, and Timmie aged 2 years a birthday party. There were fifteen little boys and girls who came ladened with beautiful toys. They played games and frolicod on the lawn until time for the usual birthday cake. It was white with red and white and blue candles, and the decorations were the same colors.

At the close Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving by the Misses Sylva Smith and Myrtle Compton, the things most children love, cream and cake and watermelon.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Miss Helen Flynn celebrated her birthday and that of her friend, Mr. John Henderson. at her home last Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock with an elegant four-course dinner.

The home was beautiful in midsummer cut flowers of all kinds. The dining room in white daisies; the centerpiece on the table was a large cut-glass bowl of white daisies. The table was also decorated with yellow candles, tied with white tulle. Place cards were in daisy design, yellow baskets filled with nuts.

Those finding places at this beautifully laid board were: Misses Helen and Catherine Flynn, Ruth Coleman, Virginia Vest, Mabel Jeter, Mottie Cass, Mary McLane and Messrs Jno. Henderson, Jack Adams, Hayden Lawrence, Mike Coleman, Delbert Childress, Max Plaster and Price Cross.

After all were seated. the following menu was served:

Fruit cocktail in orange cups
Fried chicken, rice, tomatoes,
English peas in potato nests,
Salted nuts
Pear and apple salad in dainty design, saltine crackers
Yellow mints
Yellow and white brick cream

After this the birthday cake, a very large and beautiful white cake decorated in daisies and yellow candles was cut. The ring fell to Mr. Mike Coleman, the thimble to Miss Ruth Coleman, the dime to Miss Virginia Vest, and the button to Mr. Jack Adams.

The young people then repaired to the porch and enjoyed the beautiful moonlight, conversation and the ever popular game of "42." Music on the Edison was enjoyed throughout the entire evening.

The Herald and many other friends wish for Miss Helen and Mr. Henderson many happy returns of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Phillips, Mrs. W. A. Gillon and Misses Cornelia Wallace and Louise Gillon motored over to Rockdale Sunday.

Following is the text of the telegram from the governor to the convention:

"Hon. Joseph T. Robinson, chairman,
"Democratic convention, San Francisco, Cal.:

"Let me thank you for your felicitious message. I shall accept the standard from the democracy of America, conscious, not only of the honor, but the great responsibility conferred. As providence gives me a strength, and vision, my firm resolve will be to justify the confidence which has been officially expressed. The shrine of government is in the communities of land near homes that have given service and sacrifice. To them we carry our cause with the assurance that the faith shall be kept and that the institutions of a free people are always sufficient to the needs of time, if they are held to the causes which we pledged.

"Please convey to the delegates of the convention my grateful acknowledgements.

(Signed.) "James M. Cox."

BAPTIST REVIVAL MEETING IN FULL SWING

HUNDREDS FLOCK TO HEAR EVANGELIST WHO THRILLS AND SWEEPS

NOTED SINGERS LEADING MUSIC AND SINGING—PLAN BIG DAY SUNDAY.

With increasing attendance at both the morning and night services the big Baptist revival meeting during its first week of progress has developed an almost unparalled spiritual awakening in Cameron.

With the first week of the meeting to end Sunday, and plans to make that day one of the greatest during the campaign many things for the advancement of the cause of Christianity will have been achieved as the meeting goes into the second week of its progress.

The first service of the meeting was held Sunday morning in the church following a reception Saturday night for the Evangelist and singers. Interest had been stimulated by a series of meetings held by the pastor prior to Sunday. The first open air service was held Sunday night. Morning services are being held in the church and all of the night services are being held in the open on the church lawn, where a large seating capacity has been arranged.

It has become necessary to increase the seating capacity of the lawn and this improvement will be accomplished in time for Sunday services.

Evangelist Perry F. Evans of Fort Worth is conducting the revival, being assisted by Singing Evangelists, Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Reynolds of the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth.

Evangelist Evans is a powerful pulpit orator, preaching at all times sermons that are conservative yet flaming with the spirit of evangelism. His sermons Sometimes sparkling with wit and humor, now a vertible shaft shot to the heart of things, cutting, ever cutting as sins and idols fall routed and maimed in its pathway. He is devotional to the highest degree, spiritual in all that he does, tragically pathetic at times in his appeals inspired with a consuming desire for the salvation of lost men and women.

Thousands are flocking to the meeting to hear Evangelist Evans. The night services find the tabernacle crowded to capacity and the attendance at the morning services have been more than doubled since the first service.

There has also been considerable activity in the various departments of the church, among the grown up people as well as the young people and the junior departments. Active committe organizations are functioning under well laid plans of the pastor Rev. B. B. Blaylock, who called meetings before the revival began to enlist the aid of every department of the church.

Prayer services are being held at the church daily by the young people, Junior department, and the men of the church. The various circle societies of the church are meeting in the homes for daily prayer services.

Singing Evangelists Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Reynolds of the Baptist Seminary of Fort Worth are directing the music and singing for the meeting. This service begins promptly at 8 o'clock following the prayer services. This service is one of the big features of the meeting. Mrs Reynolds at the piano as a musician known all over America and is perhaps without equal anywhere in the world of Christian evangelism as a religious singer and pianist. She made the music at the recent Southern Baptist Convention at Washington and when the great Billy Sunday visited Ft Worth several years ago her efforts at the piano contributed largely to the success of the meeting under the leadership of the famous preacher. Mrs. Reynolds is accomplished as a singer along with her attainments in music and her rich alto voice attuned to gospel songs is inspiring the great crowds.

Mr. Reynolds as a song leader is equally celebrated. He is an aggressive leader and his success as director lies chiefly in his ability to get co-operation from the congregation. Mr. Reynolds is a great singer and perhaps enjoys a distinction accorded few singing evangelists in the work today. His work has been as extensive as his musical and vocal attainments.

Mr. Reynolds sings at each service for the congregation just preceeding the preaching service, with an appeal that is giving force to the spirit of the meeting.

The meeting will continue into next week, is the announcement of Rev. B. B. Blaylock, pastor of the church. Arrangements have been made to entertain visitors. Especially is this true of the young people with well defined committee work.

Says Interurban to Camern May Soon Become Possible

J. Frank Elder of Waco, representing the proposed interurban from Waco to Cameron, was in the city this morning conferring with local parties regarding the project.

He said that interest is being taken and that he expected to have the preliminary work completed by the latter part of the month. It is neccessary to raise survey funds and for expense of determining whether the project is feasable. Cameron will be asked to subscribe its quota of the expense money.

The project has the active endorsement of the Commercial Club and a committee has been appointed to cooperate in the work.

EQUALIZATION BOARD IS APPOINTED.

The City Council in regular session Tuesday night among other matters appointed a board of equalization to go over the tax rolls for the current year. The committee was announced today as follows: J. T. Westmoreland, F. S. Lesovsky and J. E. Reno.

The council also took under advisement the matter of supressing speeding automobiles in Cameron and has issued an appeal to the citizenship to assist it in coping with this danger.

TEACHING AT BAYLOR.

W. J. Walker, who is a member of the faculty of Baylor University Summer School, spent the week-end with his family here, returning Monday night to Waco. Mr. Walker, in addition to his duties as a teacher in this great school, is taking a course in School Administration and "brushing" up along other lines of work preparatory to his duties as suprentendent of a good school in a good town for the coming session.

Mr. Charlie Mowdy was a Cameron visitor this week.

Miss Louise Hearrell is visiting in Georgetown this week.

NOTICE TO SPEEDERS.

Viewing with disfavor and alarm the growing dangers from continuous speeding and reckless driving of automobiles the City Council wishes to give notice that further disregard of the law regulating vehicle traffic will be punished and all offenders are warned that this increasing danger must be suppressed.

The city council also requests the assistance of the general public in suppressing fast and unlawful driving of cars and asks the people to advise J. E. Holtzclaw, city marshal, Mayor U. S. Hearrell, or the city attorney, S. M. Burns, Jr., of any violations of the law and to such information as will lead to the arrests and conviction.

With the co-operation of the citizenship this dangerous and unlawful practice can be stamped out and the council gives this notice with the earnest hope that the citizens will help. 10-2t

CAMERON STUDENTS GET ON HONOR ROLL

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS PROUD OF CAMERON YOUNG PEOPLE NOW ATTENDING THE GREAT COLLEGE

Austin, Texas, July 7.—The honor list of the University for the spring term has just been compiled. In computing the score of the students an A is counted as 12, a B as 9, a C as 6, a D as 3. The best one per cent of upperclassmen made scores of 64 up; the best one per cent of freshmen made scores of 63 up. The remaining groups made scores lower than these, but above 45 in the case of freshmen and 48 in the case of upperclassmen.

Students from Cameron on the honor list for the spring term are Anna Laurie Middleton and Jay Dean Howell.

MARRIED IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Word has reached Cameron of the marriage of Mrs. Lucy Hopkins to J. R. Bittle in Oklahoma City, June 29. Mrs. Hopkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. English of Cameron and is well known here, having at one time taught music in this city.

Mr. Bittle is a member of the police force in Oklahoma City. Mr. and Mrs. Bittle will be here in August to visit in the home of Judge and Mrs. English.

OCEAN AIR LINES IN FIVE YEARS

The facilities of the great Ford organization for building a type of light, speedy airships recently were offered the United States Government by Henry Ford. Predicting the future airship, he said: "Transoceanic airship travel, in ships notable for lightness and speed, rather than lifting power, will be common beyond comment in from three to five years. Berlin and London will be a day from New York, the Pacific will be crossed, and such ease of communication will go far toward breaking down the barriers of radical antipathy. It will promote one language, one creed."

"The airship, by promoting contact of peoples, would foster prejudice against war. I am ready to do anything I can to help the government. As in the past I will build without profit.

"The airship of the future will not be any one standard design, but will be a combination of the rigid dirigiyle with the airplane. Chief attention must be given to the development of a light and powerful motor, gases lighter than the air, and the reduction of weight even more than at present."

Mr. Ford has been experimenting with a motor suitable for such an airship.

ACTIVE MOSQUITO FIGHT IS SHOWING GOOD RESULTS

Good progress is being made by Inspector W. W. Culver in the preliminary survey in connection with the anti-malaria campaign now being put on here, according to W. E. Hardenburg, director of the campaign, who arrived in Cameron Tuesday.

"Mr. Culver already has killed millions of wiggle-tails which he has encountered in barrels, tubs, cans, wells and cisterns about private homes," said Mr. Hardenburg. "He reports that the people upon whom he has called so far have manifested great interest in the work and are co-operating to the fullest extent.

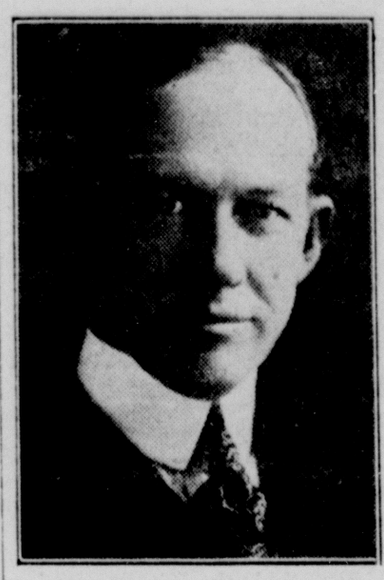

"Mr. Culver has the survey about two-thirds completed now and expects to finish it in a week or ten days. We expect the spray cans to be used in oiling will have arrived by that time, in which case, we will start oiling at once.

"In addition to the inspection work he is carrying on, Mr. Culver has also stocked about 25 wells and underground cisterns with the wiggle-tail destroying top minnow. A large number of pools have also been similarly stocked, Nearly half a mile of ditches also have been cleaned out.

"More of this work will be done from time to time."

In conclusion, Mr. Hardenburg urged that every housevife in the city make a weekly inspection of her premises to prevent breeding mosquitoes. He said barrels, tubs, cans, cisterns and wells were the things to watch most.

Thomason Speaking Tonight

R. E. Thomason.

HARLAN-THOMAS.

Monday night at the Baptist parsonage, with Brother Blaylock officiating, Mr. Walter Thomas and Miss Sue Harlan were united in marriage. A Fall wedding had been anticipated by both families, but Mr. Thomas got a good position with a wholesale clothing company at Lampasas and was leaving on Monday night for his new field of work, and cupid persuaded them that a two-months separation was folly, so the young couple, in company with Miss Alta Mae Peele and Mr. George Thomas, went to the parsonage and were married. They then visited the two families for congratulations and good wishes before leaving on the midnight train for their future home.

Mr. Thomas is the son of Mrs. George A. Thomas of this city, and is a young man of sterling character, did his part in the World War in the naval department.

Miss Sue Harlan is the daughter of Mrs. Joe Harlan, now of Cameron. Miss Sue graduated from the High School at Calvert in 1917, and was in Baylor University last year, and she is a young lady of charming personality, pleasing manners, and loved by all who knew her.

The Herald and hosts of other friends wish for these young people all the best things of life as they journey along life's rough and rugged way.

Miss Ruth Herring of Waxahachie is a guest in the home of her brother, Mr. T. N. Herring.

Mrs. T. N. Herring and children came home Friday from quite an extended visit in Waxahachie. Her baby is very much improved.

Miss Estella Coleman left this week for a three weeks' visit to Sinton.

George Hooks of the A. & M. College, was a week-end guest of his mother, Mrs. Jim Hooks.

Miss Mary Joe Harlan was the guest Tuesday of Miss Verna Roberts at San Gabriel.

Among those attending the all-day picnic and barbecue at San Gabriel Monday were. Mr. Jeff Kemp, Judge Gillis, Mr. Will Yates, Mr. U. S. Hearrell, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Van Tyson and children, Mrs. Willie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wilkerson, Mr. Jim Coleman and Miss Mildred Chambers.

DOUBLE WEDDING

A double wedding of interest to friends took place at the home of Mrs. C. L. Rogers in Alice. Wednesday, June 3, 1920, when Rev J. W. Skinner, D. D. president of the Tex.-Mex, Presbyterian institute, Kingsville, performed the ceremony uniting Miss Margie Lee Rogers and Mr. James W. Manford and Miss Curran Randolph Rogers and Rev. S. Brooks McLane. The wedding was a quiet affair, with only a few relatives and closest friends present. After the ceremony both couples took the train for Corpus Christi. Mr. and Mrs. Manford will go to their home in Luling after a few days spent in San Antonio. Mr. and Mrs. McLane will visit Mr. McLane's parents in Cameron and then spend two weeks at the after which they will make their home in Texas-Mexican Industrial Institute, where both of them taught during the past year.—Kingsville Record

The above account of the marriage of Mr. Brooks McLane will interest all the people of Cameron. Being the son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McLane, born and raised here, and having been one of the few fine young men who has battled to educate himself is enough to show the high esteem in which he is held. His work now as instructor in the Texas-Mexican institute is one of the most important fields of work in the South, and Brooks is making good and doing a wonderful work. The Herald and hosts of other friends wish for Mr. and Mrs. McLane all the blessings of life.

Speaker of the House Here to Address the People in Interest of Candidacy-- Meeting at 9 O'Clock.

R. E. Thomason, Speaker of the House of Representatives and candidate for governor, will address the voters of Milam county on the court house lawn in Cameron beginning at nine o'clock tonight.

The speaking hour has been changed from 8:30 o'clock to 9 o'clock out of respect for the Baptist revival meeting which is now in progress. The church congregation which has averaged near 1000 people during the week will be dismissed by the evangelist in time for the speaking of Mr. Thomason.

The Thomason campagn committee will meet the candidate at the Santa Fe depot this afternoon when he arrives in Cameron from Giddings where he spoke this afternoon. The Cameron concert band will greet the candidate and reception committee with a concert on the court house lawn this evening preceeding the meeting. Mr. Thomason will be entertained at the Auditorium Hotel on his arrival here and will receive his friends and supporters and all who wish to meet him.

Giles L. Avreitt, chairman of the Thomason Campaign Committee, has just returned from Galveston and reports all arrangements made for the speaking. Mr. Thomason will be introduced by District Judge John Watson. The speaking will begin promptly a 9 o'clock.

Mr. Thomason is on his way from a vigorous campaign in East Texas and from Cameron will make his way under speaking dates to north and central Texas where it is said he will spend the remainder of the campaign in a vigorous prosecution of his candidacy.

Mr. Thomason is a progressive, constructive democrat and his slogan is "less politics and more busines." He is pitching the campaign on a platform of progresive governmental issues. He is a good speaker and will entertain and isstruct his hearers tonight.

This will be the first appearance of Mr. Thomason in Milam county in the interest of his candidacy for governor. Many here are awaiting to hear him before making up their minds just how they will vote, having not made a decision for other candidates who have visited here.

Mr. Thomason wrote the famous zone law which drove liquor from the great army centers of the state during the war. He has always supported the prohibition cause and the cause of woman's suffrage, being one of the pioneer advocates of equal political rights for women.

This will be the only opportunity Milam county will have to hear Mr. Thomason speak during the campaign.

Mrs. J. S. Adams has returned to her home in Tyler after a visit with Mrs. R. G. Vaughn. Mrs. Vaughn accompanied Mrs. Adams to Tyler and from there will go to Alabama to visit relatives.

MUST EXTERMINATE RATS SAYS GODDARD TO CITY OFFICIALS

BUBONIC PLAGUE CAUSES WAR TO BE WAGED ON RATS SAYS OFFICIAL BBULLETIN

Austin, Texas, July 1.—Dr. C. W. Goddard, State Health officer, has sent the following Bubonic Plague regulation to every mayor and Health officer in the quarantine area as follows (50 miles inland from the gulf coast and Rio Grande and Sabine borders and a radius of 100 miles around Galveston and Beaumont):

In accordance with the modified quarantine proclamation issued by the Governor of this state and becoming a law June 27, 1920, you are hereby officially notified that your city is considered within the prescribed area and subject to the general rules and regulations promulgated by the Texas State Board of Health Department, viz:

A complete rat extermination campaign must be inaugurated at once in each incorporated town and city within the said prescribed quarantine area

Dr. Goddard suggests that all towns and communities in Texas, tho not included in this area, employ every known to eradicate rodents, including poison; but in case of poison it must be placed in such a manner that the children cannot possibly get hold of it.

The rat menace is one of the big problems confronting the people of Texas at this time. The Plague-spreader, the rot, is a destructive, filthy animal and spreads other diseases than the plague, which is the most terrible of all pestilences which have afflicted man, as a high percentage of the cases prove fatal. Europe alone lost over 25,000,000 people during the fourteenth century and India has lost several million during the last few years. Public safety demands the destruction of rats. It is costing Texas millions of dollars every year to feed her rat population.

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN TRAIN WRECK

REPORTED 100 OTHERS INJURED IN ACCIDENT NEAR SCRANTON, PA.

Scranton, Pa., July .—In a collision between three cars on the Lackawanna & Wyoming Valley Railroad near South Pittston Station at 7:30 o'clock eighteen people are reported killed and 100 injured. The accident occurred near South Pittston when lightning struck a telegraph pole along the line of the track and the pole fell over the tracks in front of a car bound for Scranton.

A moment later a limited car crashed into the rear of the car that struck the pole and a third car telescoped the second car. All three cars were piled in a heap.

Many of those killed and injured had attended the annual games of the Calodonian Clubs of Scranton and Pittston at Valley View Park this afternoon.

Most of the injured have been taken to the State hospital at Pittston.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS.

Eat less meat if you feel backache or have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

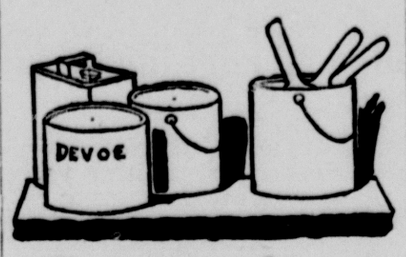

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acids of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive and harmless and makes a delightful effervescent litha water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

Line Your Garage for Winter Warmth —for Summer Comfort

THE bare unfinished walls of your garage are not only unsightly — but they fail to sufficiently protect against the blustering winds of winter and the scorching rays of a summer sun.

A few dollars spent for Cornell Wood Board, that takes the place of plaster, will avoid frozen radiators and end the discomfort of zero weather starting. In summer it will make your garage cool and comfortable.

"Cornell 32" for the Small Garage

Strong Cornell panels of 32-inch width are especially adapted for the small garage and other out buildings. For large rooms and broad partitions, the 48-inch width (called "Cornell 48") is recommended.

Cornell's triple sizing protects against moisture, contraction and expansion. Its mill-primed surface saves the cost and labor of a sizing coat. A single application of paint or calcimine gives a perfect spread.

SAN GABRIEL GOSSIP

By Mrs. J. S. Woody

June 29th—Since our last writing we've been recipient of another fine rain, preventing farm work until Friday. A light shower yesterday afternoon brings expressions of man's desire for several weeks of dry weather. Everything in this vicinity is looking beautiful.

H. M. Camp was in Cameron last Wednesday.

E. B. Phillips was here from Rockdale one day last week.

Freeman Gamble of Cameron, was with homefolks and friends in San Gabriel part of last week.

On last Wednesday afternoon, a gathering of friends and relatives formed one of the largest processions that we've ever seen to the Locklin Cemetery to pay the last tribute of respect to Mr. James A. Clark in placing to rest in that "City of the Dead."

In the stillest afternoon, the thump of a great apple is audible, falling from the mere necessity of ripeness. So it was in the afternoon of his life. He lived to the Patriarchal age of 83 years, and while the end was expected soon, only by his immediate family we realize that, at his age, the days are numbered at the best which somewhat prepares us for the shock that death always occasions.

His early life was passed in Arkansas, moving later to Texas, where he spent his last years. He had been twice married, his last wife—nee, Miss Mattie Orr—still survives him.

Mr. Clark was a most honored citizen of our village, a good neighbor, kind husband and father and a devoted Christian gentleman, ever honest in his dealings with his fellowman and a member of the Odd Fellows' Lodge. He was a member of long standing of the Christian Church and tho' his feeble steps barred his regular attendance at divine service thru his late years, his past life in his church work has been indelibly stamped on the memory of those who will sadly miss him.

He served his Master and he served his country, being a Confederate soldier, serving all four years of that war.

Seeking first, protection of his own soul, in living a Christian life, in giving service for a protection of his country and loved ones, other things were added as blessings. His property right lies in hundreds of acres of choice black land and a good home left to his family.

He was the father of seventeen children, eleven of whom survive him and five of whom were absent from funeral services on account of distance.

This service was held by his pastor, Rev. Roberts of San Gabriel.

The honorary pall bearers were: Rev. Sam Elliott of Thorndale and Messrs. J. H. Fulcher, Bill Jones, W. S. Glasscock, Hume Davis and Walter Clark (brother of deceased) of San Gabriel.

Active pall bearers were the three sons Willie, Harry and Jamie Clark, Warner Terry, John B. Willis and Will Baird.

The esteem in which he was held was pictured in the large offerings of beautiful flowers that adorned his mound.

Loving care was bestowed upon him by his family, they having done all that could be done for his comfort and strength. The untiring nursing and ever faithful watching over him, of his baby girl, Miss Beatrice, promotes special praise from neighbors and friends in the loathfulness of giving him up and eforts toward retention of one she loved—her father."

A name, that time can work no marks of change in the memory of of those left to mourn him, who bore it. We know they realize that a dreary sea now flows between but; the Christian's trust—Heaven's best gift to man—makes the heart strong and calm mid troubles and we must know that God holds supreme control and that time's wind will soon waft each of us onto a similar threshold where we shall answer to our name on the same roll call to stand in the presence of our Master.

May we only leave behind us a name that friends may feel as they can say of him, that "Heaven's eternal year is his."

In the midst of their sorest trial we offer sympathy to his loved ones.

Mrs. Lucy Murry of Daronzette, Texas, and Willie Clark of Lampasas, were called home last Tuesday by the death of their father, Mr. James A. Clark.

Others attending the funeral were Messrs. Sam Elliott, Sam Clement, Arthur Young and little son, Bob, Sharp Young and Miss Minnie Young of Thorndale.

Mrs. James A. Clark, who had been in the home of her daughter in Oregon, was called home by the sudden illness of her husband.

Mrs. Lindsey is on the sick list at present.

Mrs. Will Richardson and little daughters arrived Sunday from Houston to spend awhile with relatives here.

Murrell and Felton Camp returned Friday from Arizona. where they made claim to the per capita share allotted in the government lands of that state.

Little Miss Augusta Felton is visiting this week in Temple.

Branch Lewis of Rockdale was in our village Thursday.

DeLeslie Richardson is on the complaining list.

Dr. Lawrence of Thorndale was in this vicinity Sunday.

Mr. Warren and family motored over from Thorndale Sunday afternoon.

Frank Orr of Uvalde, attended the funeral of his brother-in-law, Mr. Jim Clark last Wednesday.

Messrs. Hefley and Wallace Young of Thorndale were visitors in our village Monday evening.

What "Best By Test" Means to the Housewife.

The value of any article can be judged only by a direct comparison of that article with other articles of the same kind.

For instance—you may think some special brand of baking powder is best. That doesn't prove anything. The only way you can be sure of Baking Powder superiority is by an actual test against all other brands.

It isn't necessary, however that the housewife go to the trouble and expense of such an investigation herself.

Such tests have already been made—and made by experts in the value of Baking Powder.

Calumet Baking Powder received highest awards at the World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago—Paris Exposition, Paris, France. There can be but one answer to this—Calumet is best—by test—and best by the most exacting test it is possible to make.

Any housewife familiar with this fact can rest absolutely assured that when buying Calumet she is obtaining the best Baking Powder it is possible to manufacture.

DISHONORING THE PRESIDENCY

The world of abuse which has been heaped upon President Wilson for partisan purposes is dishonoring the Presidency more than it is hurting the present Chief Executive. It has puzzled many people that the mass of American citizens are willing to stand for such disgraceful treatment of an honest man, whose only aim has been a conscientious effort to do what appeared right to him.

It is a useful thing for us all to realize that no currupt man has ever ocupied the high office of the people, and that none can do so unless elected by a majority of his fellow men, as expressed in the electoral college. To decry an admittedly honest man is to open the bars to a crook, because when a real scoundrel is justly denounced he will be able to point to the rabid denunciation of former good men.

Richard Spillane, in Commerce and Finance, tells of an incident along this line, saying:

"There was a representative in Congress from Texas twenty odd years ago named Samuel T. Lanham, who later became Governor of the Lone Star State. Between him and a newspaper man at that time living at Galveston there was quite a friendship. On one of the Congressman's visits to the Oleander city the newspaper man, who is somewhat emotional and sometimes given to strong expression, spoke to him glowingly of a book he had been reading, 'Prue and I.'

"'I'll have to get a copy,' said Mr. Lanham.

"'Don't bother,' said the newspaper man. 'You are going up state tomorrow. I'll be on the train with you. I'll bring the book along. After you read it you can sen dit back to me.'

"They journeyed together the statesman reading and occasionally stopping to talk with his companion over some passage in the book that pleased him particularly.

"Tiring of reading the two men talked of men and things. McKinley was president. Politics is the chief staple of conversation—or was—in male circles in Texas.

"The newspaper man at one stage launched upon a bitter arraignment of the President. He spoke of the trusts, of Mark Hanna, of the debasement of the administration to the money power and he made some remarks about Mr. McKinley that were very strong.

"'My friend,' said Mr. Lanham, 'I must ask you to stop. I will not sit beside you and listen to an attack upon the character of the President of the United States. I do not agree with Mr. McKinley politically. He and I are far apart in our views. But he is an honest man, a good man. He could not be otherwise. It is shocking that in this country of ours gross things are permitted to be said about our Chief Executives.

"'We never have had other than a worthy man President of the United States. It is not possible in my belief, that we could have any other. There is an atmosphere about the great office such as, I believe, there is around no other office on earth. I believe if a bad man were elected to the presidency the sanctity of his duties, the responsibilities vested in him, would make a good man of him.

"'Never doubt your president. He may err or you may think he errs but never doubt him, never say a word in derogation of his motives or his character.

"'I, for one, will never listen to attack upon a president without protest no matter how wide apart we may be politically and I will not sit with you if you say another word reflecting upon Mr. McKinley.

"'If what I have said offends you I am very sorry but further than that I have no apology to offer.'

"The newspaper man was silent only a few moments after the congressman ceased speaking.

"Then he said: 'Offend me? No, I thank you. You have done a service to me, a service I will never forget,, for never again, so long as I live will I say a word in aspersion of the Chief Magistrate of our country.'

"And though he has differed at times from all of the presidents since Mr. McKinley's day, he has never forgotten that pledge to Samuel Lanham or ceased to honor the man who made clear to him one of commonest sin of American citizenship."

FARMER'S INCOME SUBJECT TO TAX

Gains for 1919 Must Be Figured Under U. S. Law—Returns Due March 15.

LAND SALE PROFITS TAXABLE.

Necessary Farm Expenses May Be Deducted—Special Form for Farm Income—Cash or Accrual Basis for Computing.

A farmer, shopkeeper, or tradesman must figure up his net income for 1919; and if the farm or business income plus his other income was sufficient to require an income tax return a complete return must be filed with the collector of internal revenue by March 15.

A farmer should ascertain the gross income of his farm by computing all gains derived from the sale or exchange of his products, whether produced on the farm or purchased and resold.

Farm Expenses.

From his gross income a farmer is allowed to charge off all of his necessary expenses in the conduct of the farm during the year. These include costs of planting, cultivating, harvesting and marketing. In addition to these costs he may deduct money spent for ordinary farm tools of short life bought during the year, such as shovels, rakes, etc. Also, the cost of feed purchased for his live stock may be treated as an expense in so far as this cost represents actual outlay, but the value of his own products fed to animals is not a deductible item.

Other farm expenses allowable are the cost of minor repairs on buildings (but not the dwelling house), on fences, wagons and farm machinery; also bills paid for horseshoeing, stock powders, rock salt, services of veterinary, insurance (except on dwelling house), gasoline for operating power and sundry other expenses which were paid for in cash.

As to hired help, all the productive labor is a deductible expense; but the wages of household servants, or help hired to improve the farm, as in tree planting, ditching, etc., cannot be claimed against earnings. A farmer is not allowed to claim a salary for himself or members of his family who work on the farm.

Wear and Tear.

Purchase of farm machinery, wagons, work animals, etc., also the cost of construction or extension of buildings, silos, fencing, etc., should be considered additional investments in the farm and are not proper deductions against income.

A reasonable allowance may be claimed for wear and tear on farm buildings (except the farmhouse), fences, machinery, work animals, wagons, tanks, windmills and other farm equipment which is used in the conduct of the farm.

As to autos and tractors, the cost of these is not an expense, although the cost of their upkeep is an allowable deduction, if the machines are used exclusively for farm purposes and not for pleasure. Also, in such cases, a deduction for wear and tear is allowed.

Farm Losses.

The loss of a growing crop is not a proper deduction from income, inasmuch as the value of the crop had not been taken into gross income. The loss of a building or of machinery through storm, lightning, flood, etc., is an allowable deduction, but care should be used to ascertain the correct loss sustained, as restricted by income tax regulations.

No deduction is allowed in the case of loss of animals raised on the farm, but a loss is deductible from gross income if the animals had been purchased for draft or breeding purposes.

Shrinkage in weight or value of farm products held for favorable market prices cannot be deducted as a loss, for the reason that when such products are sold the shrinkage will be reflected in the selling price.

Sale of Farms and Land.

The value of agricultural lands has been jumping during the past few years, and during 1919 many owners sold out part or all of their lands at big profits. All such gains constitute income and must be taken into the net income for the year.

Any person who sold part of a farm or ranch, or part of a parcel of land, must also show any gains realized by the sale.

The method of figuring gains and losses on such transactions is prescribed in the Income Tax regulations, copies of which may be secured from Internal Revenue Collectors.

Forms for Returns.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has issued an improved Form 1040F for the use of farmers. This form, together with Form 1040A or 1040, will give the farmer explicit information as to how to properly figure his net income for 1919.

There are two methods of figuring a farmer's income tax return this year. He may make his return on the basis of the difference between the money and goods received for his products and the cash paid out for actual allowable farm expenses within the year. Or he may make his return on the accrual basis, which means computing the receipts and expenses that pertain to the taxable year, excluding income earned and expenses incurred in previous or succeeding years.

MANY SUGGESTIONS FOR IDEAL SECTION

The best thought of the highway engineers of America is being given to the drafting of specifications for the "ideal section" to be built somewhere along the Lincoln Highway with funds provided by the United States Rubber Company.

The Lincoln Highway Association is receiving hundreds of suggestions from engineers in every part of the United States, indicating a deep interet in the project.

As was expected a wide diversity of opinion as regards the specifications for such an "ideal section" is being indicated. As rapidly as possible the officials of the Association are tabulating the replies and suggestions received and these will be subjected to the careful scrutiny of a competent Board of fifteen of the most representative and experienced highway authorities of the United States. The personnel of this Board will be announced soon by the Association.

It is clearly apparent that the majority of the engineers who have made suggestions feel that a right-of-way wider than those now being provided is desirable if the future increase of highway transportation is to be anticipated and provided for. Permanent monolithic pavement is the almost unanimous verdict of those so far heard from.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receiv, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. —— had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition." If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Insist On Getting Genuine Ford Parts

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts made by the Ford Motor Company. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. These imitation parts are not even made from the same grade of steel, or under the same formulas used by the Ford Motor Company. They are counterfeit parts. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend, and they generally are from twenty-five to one hundred per cent lower in quality.

The Authorized Ford Dealer is your protection. As such, we handle nothing but Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel and each part—according to its use—is heat-treated in a way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Every part is the same as its duplicate in your Ford Car or Ford Truck.

Our stock of parts is complete. And our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

PROBABLY NO SECOND PRIMARY NECESSARY

The candidacy of Pat Neff for Governor grows steadily stronger. Scores of people in Milam and adjoining counties who previously were undecided or inclined toward one of the other candidates, after hearing the masterly address of Mr. Neff delivered in Cameron and at Davillo on June 21st. are now actively supporting him. From every part of the state comes word of accessions to the Neff banner. Without doubt he will lead in the first primary, and his continued gain in strength indicates that he will come out with a majority of all the votes and dispense with the necessity of a second primary.

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.

WATER WORKS MAN GIVES OUT FACTS

"I have been trying for years to get something that would relieve me of my troubles and have found it at last in Tanlas," said Alfred Jolly, of 3291 Quitman street, Denver, Colo., and an employee of the water works department of that city.

"For a long time," he continued, "my stomach was in such an awful fix that I could eat hardly a thing without being in misery afterwards. Even the lightest foods would bloat me up with gas and I was constantly belching up sour, undigested food that at times would almost choke me, and often I would get so dizzy and light headed that I would almost fall down, and I would get so nervous that it was almost impossible for me to rest at night. I suffered agony wretched condition that I was hardly fit for a thing.

"After trying nearly everything I could hear of I took Tanlac, and it sure hit the spot and has made a different man of me. My appetite is splendid, my nerves steady, I sleep like a log at night, have gained eight pounds and am in better shape than I have been in years."

"Tanlac is sold in Cameron by New Cameron Drug Co., in Rockdale by Baldridge Bros., in Milano by E. C. Smith and in Burlington by the New Drug Store."

THE BETTER PART

By VICTOR REDCLIFFE.

"So you and Cora have decided to embark upon the sea of matrimony, Brill?"

"I am happy and fortunate in saying 'yes.'"

"Cora is a fine girl," declared Myron Blair. "I'd ought to know, for she is my sister-in-law. She will make you a good wife, only—one piece of advice, cut out the mother-in-law."

"I hardly understand you," spoke Wallace Brill, with manifest resentment.

"You will when you get farther along in your experience. See here, as relatives prospective by courtesy, I can be plain with you. If one principle was instilled into my nature by prejudice and observation it was the mother-in-law problem. When I married Bella Mayne I made up my mind to run no risks of having a fussy, meddlesome old lady on my hands. Of course I said nothing to Bella. Of course I treated Mrs. Mayne with all due respect. Firmly, persistently, though, I adopted a policy of procedure that set up the bars against any mother-in-law invasion. I settled down in a house at the farther end of the village on purpose, so Mrs. Mayne wouldn't find it convenient to run in on us every day. When the two children came along I saw to it that they didn't come under her rule and influence in any way. No, sir! I tell you, Brill, the man who wants a well-ordered household must keep the mother-in-law at a distance. Hello! There's a man I want to see on business," and the voluble speaker darted off.

Wallace was glad. In another moment he would have been unable to control his indignation. To him the mother of his bride expectant was almost a part of herself, and a person for whom he felt a dutiful and respectful consideration. Then, again, Wallace knew something of "the system" of Myron Blair and its results. It had not worked, except for the selfish benefit of shallow, self-opinionated Blair. As Wallace was well aware it had brought misery and unhappiness to others—victims who made no complaint, but silently experienced their wretchedness because they were of a noble, self-sacrificing nature. When Blair installed the daughter in a home two miles away, Mrs. Mayne experienced a loneliness that might have been easily avoided. When Blair jealously restricted the children to only occasional formal visits to their grandmother, it almost broke her heart. The absence of her mother at critical junctures in her life meant suffering and a broken constitution for Bella, and the boastful, insensate Blair fancied that as a model disciplinarian he was a decided success.

Wallace Brill had not known a mother's care from early childhood. When he began to pay attention to Cora Mayne it seemed as though her mother came to fill a precious place in his life.

Very careful was Mrs. Mayne to refrain from intruding her personality or her views upon this new prospective son-in-law, but she bestowed many a grateful look upon him and her old, wearied heart warmed toward him, as he clearly showed that he not only desired, but cherished her interest and counsel in the problems that confronted Cora and himself on the threshold of their matrimonial venture.

Wallace was doing well in a business way. He had been thrifty and had accumulated sufficient to enable him to start out in life with a home of his own. When he first spoke to Cora of this it was in the presence of her mother.

"Well, I settled about a lot today," he announced in his brisk, pleasant way. "I say, mother, there's one disappointment. I have tried to get as near as possible to the old homestead here, but the only vacant lot that fitted to my money acquirements was two squares down the street."

"That—that is not far, is it, Wallace?" spoke the old lady. Her tones were tremulous.

"If you will put on your spectacles, mother," went on Wallace, "we'll all draw up to the table and look over some plans for a new house I got from the architect today. "There," as he settled her in the most comfortable chair and directly at his side, "with such counsellors as you precious two, I'll warrant we'll have a regular little palace."

With his pencil Wallace went over the plans—parlor, dining room, kitchen, bedrooms, closets, and then he indicated a special apartment.

"I'm throwing myself on that room," emphasized Wallace with a token of rare pride in his tones. "Sunlight on three sides, ventilation perfect, convenient to all the other rooms in the house. What do you think of it, mother?"

"Your den, I suppose?" said Mrs. Mayne.

"Oh, no," replied Wallace promptly. "That's your room, mother."

"My room!" faltered the old lady, all a tremble.

"All your own, and no one else's," declared Wallace. "How do you like it?"

Mrs. Mayne fixed her faded eyes upon the speaker with a devotion and gratitude that thrilled him mightily. Then upon his shoulder sank her silvered head. And then, her arm about him, joining in the grateful sobbing of that dear old soul, Clara Mayne clasped both in her arms and Wallace Brill felt that life was indeed sweet.

HALF YOUR LIVING WITHOUT MONEY COST

Continued Southern Farm Prosperity Dependent on Cutting Production Cost Through Food Making and Saving

Atlanta, Ga.—(Special.)—"Tens of thousands of farmers in the South will face the problem of making cotton under heavy weevil infestation for the first time in 1920. Their success or failure under these new conditions will be absolutely dependent on the degree that there is food, grain and forage produced on their farms this year," said H. G. Hastings, president of both the Georgia Chamber of Commerce and the Southeastern Fair.

"A few weeks ago the newspapers carried the report that an Alabama county was preparing to erect a monument to the boll weevil, because of the good the weevil had done them in forcing them out of the 'all-cotton' poverty-producing rut, into the prosperity that always follows a diversity of crops and the production on home acres of every pound possible of food, grain and forage supplies needed by the family and live stock.

"Our good people here in the South have never, until very recently, taken the home or family vegetable garden seriously as a source of food supply. It has been looked on strictly as a side issue, something of little importance, something to be attended to the last thing on the place. The home garden, rightly handled, can be made to produce half the food needed by the family and practically without money cost.

"The average 'lick and promise' sort of a garden has little value. To be of real value the garden must be planned for, really prepared for, planted right and kept cultivated through the season, and cultivated whenever needed. That kind of a garden will keep its owner's table well supplied with an abundance of healthful food seven or eight months in the year, as well as furnishing an abundance of canned and dried vegetables for winter use.

"Every mess of vegetables direct from garden to table, every can or jar of home-canned vegetables from closet shelves, makes a hole in that store bill that is always a terror when 'settling' time comes.

"Good home gardens have been real life savers to thousands of southern farmers who have gone 'flat broke' trying to meet store bills. A good garden will cut the store bill until its size is negligible. Give the garden a fair chance and a square deal in 1920 and the result will be agreeably surprising."

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to nomal activity, also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and primary organs clean thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

ALKALI IN SOAP RUINS HAIR

Most soap contains free alkali, which is very injurious to the delicately constructed scalp, and causes the hair to become dry and harsh. Careless and incorrect shampooing frequently causes the pores of the scalp to become clogged and thus the hair roots fail to receive nourishment and air. In this state the tissues are weak and become an easy prey to attacking germs such as dandruff.

Great care should be taken in choosing a shampoo which is free from any injurious substance, is pure, cleansing, mildly antiseptic and tonic in effect. There is such a shampoo on the market—Splenlox Cocoanut Oil Shampoo. Its beneficial effects have aided in renewing health and beauty in the hair of many men and women.

A few hair health and beauty rules:

1. Wash and disinfect your brush and comb regularly.
2. Tight hats or methods of hair dressing that bind the hair interfere with scalp circulation.
3. Give the hair frequent air and sunlight baths; but do not expose to the direct rays of the sun when it is wet.
4. At the first sign of dandruff apply Splenlox Guaranteed Dandruff Remedy regularly till the scalp responds to the treatment.
5. Shampoo regularly—men once a week, women once a fortnight—with Splenlox Cocoanut Oil Shampoo.

Splenlox products are absolutely pure and reliable and are scientifically prepared to promote health and beauty to the hair. Made by The Splenlox Co., Dallas and Philadelphia.

POLITICAL PROPOGANDA EXPLODED

Circular letters charging Pat Neff Candidate for Governor, with having been unfavorable to Woman Suffrage were recently sent through the mail to many of the women of Milam county, who will participate in the Democratic primaries. It appears that this character of political propaganda is resorted to by some of those active in behalf of Mr. R. E. Thomason, one of Mr. Neff's opponents. However, this charge against Mr. Neff's record on the woman suffrage question is quite completely exploded by more than four thousand men and women of Waco (neighbors of Mr. Neff and acquainted with his record) who make the following statement in print, to-wit:

"Mr. Neff has always been an advocate of Woman suffrage and has never opposed the same; and in all his public speeches where that question has been an issue, he has advocated it. He believes and has always believed that women should have the equal right to vote with the men."

The charge that Mr. Neff opposed Woman Suffrage is further refuted by the conceded fact that in his home city and county his support will be practically unanimous among the women, as well as among the men.

JUDD G. DAVIS,
Chairman Milam County Neff Exctv. Committee.

ORGANIZE MILAM COUNTY FARMERS HERE JULY 13

MOVEMENT TO IMPROVE MARKETING CONDITIONS, WOULD SELL DIRECT TO SPINNERS.

Announcement is made from the headquarters at Corpus Christi that a branch organization of the United Cotton Growers Association will be organized in Cameron July 13th.

One of the principal objects of this association is to sell direct to the spinners and thus increase the receipts to the farmer.

The United Cotton Growers of America held its first annual meeting in Corpus Christi, Texas, on the21st of April, with an attendance of 576 representative farmers from South Texas. Since this first annual meeting, we have thoroughly organized fifteen counties in the state by electing the officers of the county association, including an Executive Committee of four men in each county. These County Executive Committees have charge of all warehouses to be erected in the counties, each county forming a separate unit in the Association. We have plans and specifications practically ready for the erection of these warehouses, all of which will be built of re-inforced concrete, in order that they may be permanent and that the insurance rate may be cut to the minimum. Our present plan contemplates a unit building 56 feet wide, 181 feet long, and 12 feet high, with the floor, ceiling pilasters built of re-inforced concrete, and filler walls to be built of brick 12 inches thick. This kind of a building, with sprinkler system installed, will give an insurance rate of about 63 cents on the contents and 32 cents on building. The difference between the insurance rates of this kind of a building and the ordinary warehouses as constructed now will pay for the re-inforced concrete building within five or six years' time. Owing to the nearness of the year's cotton season, it will be impossible to have these buildings ready for this year's crop, but we intend to go ahead with the work and have them ready for the crop of 1921.

We are now negociating with the spinners of the east to the end that we may sell the present crop of our members direct to the spinners, in line with one of the purposes for which this association was formed. This can be done by contracting the cotton at the compresses of the country, or contracting for delivery at Houston, Texas. As soon as plans have been completed with the spinners, the association can avail itself of the opportunity of selling direct to the spinners, thereby omitting the profits of the middleman and saving them for the producer.

We have practically completed the plans to cover the balance of the cotton counties of Texas. At the present time there are 172 counties in the state that produce cotton in sufficient quantity to be reported by the Government in its annual ginners' report. It is our aim to have all of these counties organized under the direction of the United Cotton Growers Association by January 1, 1921, and that date should show 100,000 members in this association who have banded themselves together for the purpose of co-operating to the end that all cotton grown by them will be housed and a selling bureau established for the purpose of selling direct to the spinner all cotton grown by the members of this Association. When we consider the fact that the damage to the 1919 crop is estimated as high as 1,000,000 bales worth on the present market, the sum of $200,000,000.00, it is high time that the farmers were organizing to save this fearful waste and add this sum to their profits, rather than their losses.

The time is not far distant when all of the gins in this country will compress the cotton as soon as ginned. The up-to-date gin factories of the country are now building what they term gincompresses, which, when installed in the gins will compress cotton to a density of 22 lbs. to the cubit foot. Cotton will then be weighed, sampled and stapled at the gin, and these grades and weights will follow the bale to the spinner without re-weighing or re-sampling. We are nearing the time when the pernicious sampling system by cutting bales of cotton will cease. This sampling system in the beginning was merely a crude way to determine the character of the bale of cotton, but it has now reached the most pernicious of any stealage system ever inflicted upon the unsuspecting public. The day has come when the system must cease, and it will cease when the gins of the country begin to compress cotton. The ginners might just as well face the fact that within a short time they will be compelled to put in these gin compresses and when installed the producer will simply pay the ginner for ginning and also for compressing and when this is an accomplished fact in all the gins of the land, then we can save cotton and out of all the waste and damage that has been eating up the profits of the farmers of this country.

This Association has committed itself to this proposition—"Better ginning, gin compression, warehousing, financing and marketing of the cotton crop."

COX AND ROOSEVELT NOMINATED

Ohio Governor Chosen at End of Spectacular Fight----Long Deadlock Leaves Scars of Battle as Wet Candidate Wins Victory---Roosevelt Named by Acclamation----Bryan Silent After Defeat.

San Francisco. Cal., July 6.—James M. Cox, three times Governor of Ohio, was nominated for the presidency at 1:40 o'clock this morning by the Democratic National convention in the break-up of one of the most prolonged deadlocks in the history of the national political parties.

Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, was nominated for Vice-President by acclamation this afternoon. Supporters of Governor Cox won way to the nomination by persistent battering at the Palmer and McAdoo forces in many States throughout a long series of shifting and rallies which left now one and then another of the candidates in the lead.

On the opening ballot Friday the Ohio governor was in third place. He soon passed Palmer, however, and on the twelfth ballot went ahead of McAdoo. Then began a see-sawing between the Cox and McAdoo totals which at the end of the thirty-ninth roll call at midnight found the two virtually the same.

End on Forty-Fourth.

On the forty-second ballot the accession of most of the Palmer strength to Cox put him well ahead and after that great and little State delegations went into the Cox column in a procession On the forty-third he got a majority for the first time of all the votes cast and on the forty-fourth he was plunging toward the required two-thirds when Colorado changed its vote to him and made the nomination obvious. It was made unanimous on motion of Sam B. Amidon of Kansas. a leader of the McAdoo forces.

A terrific uproar followed. The whole mass of delegates threw themselves into a wild final demonstration, greater than any of the ogies of noise that had preceeded.

The nominating of a presidental candidate wound up the real business so far as scores of delegates and alternates were concerned and the outgoing trains had a great part of the convention forces aboard them. Somebody suggested that the outgoing train be polled.

The galleries, too, had lost a great deal of their interest and there were thousands of empty seats. Secretary Roosevelt. when told that he looked like a good prospect for the vice presidential nomination said:

"I can't afford the honor. I have five children."

Nominations.

Governor Stewart of Montana and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee were placed in nomination for the vice presidency in the first two hours. Opposition to Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York had developed from the Tammany organization.

Franklin D. Roosevelt. Assistant Secretary of the Navy. was placed in nomination for the Vice Presidency by Timothy L. Ansberry. a former representative in Congress from Ohio, who sat in the convention as a District of Columbia delegate.

Mr. Roosevelt's nomination from the District of Columbia instead f New York State was accounted a bit of political strategy which would meet the demands of the Western delegates for a candidate not accounted a member of the Tammany forces of New York. Mr. Roosevelt has had his political difficulties with Tammany for several years.

Edward L. Doheny of California was placed in nomination by Lorin A. Handley of Los Angeles.

Senator Nugent of Idaho nominated former Judge James H. Hanley of Boise, Idaho, for the Vice Presidency.

Former Governor Dunne of Illinois nominated James Hamilton Lewis for the Vice Presidency.

David R. Francis of St. Louis. former Ambassador to Russia. was placed in nomination for the Vice Presidency by E. P. Rosenberger of Montgomery. Mo.

Despite the disinclination of the Tammany organization to accept him. Roosevelt's name went over with a band wagon movement. during which all other candidates were withdrawn.

James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois was withdrawn early by former Governor Dunn; Governor Stewart of Montana announced his own withdrawal; Edward L. Doheny of California. and former Governor Hawley of Idaho were withdrawn and Major General L. D. Tyson of Tennessee. in person, announced that he would not be a contender, as did David R. Francis of Missouri. Nomination of W. T. Vaughan of Oregan. who had received state primary endorsement, was changed into a second for the successful nominee.

Colby Declines Honor.

Bainbridge Colby. Secretary of State, who was considered as a candidate and refused to allow his name to be used, finally was urged to consent if he should be "drafted."

Never was there very strong opposition to the nomination of Roosevelt and the seconding by Governor Smith of New York from the Tammany delegation clinched it.

David R. Francis of Missouri moved that the rules be suspended and that Roosevelt be nominated by acclamation. The resolution was adopted with a great chorus of ayes and three cheers for Cox and Roosevelt.

Senator Robinson of Arkansas, permanent chairman of the convention was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Governor Cox of his nomination and Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the Democratic National Committee was appointed chairman of the committee to notify Mr. Roosevelt.

After its tumultuous session of forty-four ballots the convention reassembled at noon today to finish its work. There was at first a delay utilized by the Cox managers to hear from the Governor about his wishes on the vice presidential nomination. H. H. Moore of Youngstown. Ohio, who managed the Governor's fight. let it be known that Cox was willing to leave the selection of his running-mate to the convention. With that the forces easily and quickly coalesced and after Roosevelt's nomination applauded an appreciation of him by his chief, Secretary Josephus Daniels.

Nominee Disappears.

It was exactly 3:15 o'clock when the convention with loud cheers nominated Mr. Roosevelt with a loud shout and the first party cry, "Cox and Roosevelt," rang out.

Mr. Roosevelt left the convention hall just before he was nominated, but after his nomination was a certainty, to a number of friends he recalled that before the convention he prophesied that the convention would be "unbossed" and declared that his prophesy had come true.

Mr. Roosevelt went to his hotel and from there to the battleship New Mexico to dine with Secretary Daniels, his chief.

The convention wanted to hear Roosevelt and Chairman Robinson instead presented Secretary Daniels, who made a speech.

During the closing moments of the convention the usual formal resolutions affecting the national committee and the convention organization were adopted, with a resolution expressing the thanks and appreciation of the convention to the city of San Francisco.

COX ACCEPTS THE NOMINATION; READY FOR THE BIG CAMPAIGN

Nominee is Newspaper Man and Son of Toil. Gets News While Waiting at his Office--Kisses Wife and Visits Mother's Grave---Dayton Rejoicing.

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—In a telegram to the democratic national convention accepting the presidential nomination and thanking the delegates for their support, Gov. James M. Cox today intimated he is ready to make an extensive speaking campaign in every state.

His close friends said he will urge his political advisers against a "front porch" campaign such as Senator Harding, the republican presidential nominee, expects to make at his home in Marion.

The governor said, however, that no plans have been formulated and the campaign will not be discussed officially until democratic national committee members and other party leaders return from San Francisco.

Although he said he not considered the matter, he indicated he had no intention of resigning as governor of Ohio to devote all his time to the campaign. He pointed out that Senator Harding had announced that he would not resign from the senate.

Governor Cox spent the day receiving old friends at his home, Trail's End, near Dayton, and in his newspaper office, the Dayton News.

Tonight he motored twenty-five miles to Middleton, Ohio, to make a brief address to his friends and neighbors of his youthful days when he was a newsboy, printer's devil, school teacher and reporter in that city. Hundreds of telegrams, including congratulations from President Wilson and Senator Harding, were received today, but it was a physical impossibility for the democratic nominee to answer many of them. Several volunteer clerks were kept busy opening them.

News of Nomination.

The Ohio Governor spent yesterday and last night listening to reports of progress of the convention. He received the first news of his nomination from the Associated Press in his newspaper office. Together with Mrs. Cox and a few close friends and his newspaper associates, he had been watching the reports closely since the opening of the convention last wek.

When the flash came announcing his nomination the governor sat for a minute as though stunned.

Then he crossed the room and kissed his wife. His next act was to go to the composing room of his newspaper and shake hands with his printers. Later he walked several blocks to the home of his closest personal friend, John A. McMahon, prominent Dayton attorney, to whom he wished personally to break the news.

Visits Mother's Grave.

After a light breakfast the governor visited the grave of his mother. She died several years ago, after living to see him inaugurated governor for his first term.

Plans are being made by the Dayton Chamber of Commerce for a jollification in Dayton at a later date, probably July 15.

Employes of his newspaper earlier in the day sent the governor a huge boquet of flowers. Moving pictures were made of Governor Cox when he climbed the steps of the composing room of his newspaper to receive the congratulations and resolutions of support of his printers— all union men.

Up From the Ranks.

In his talk to his newspaper employes, Governor Cox said:

"The greatest gift that the Almighty God can give to any man in public life is to permit him to come into the world under circumstances which enable him to know the life status of the man who works. Providence was good to me—it was my high privilege to come through the ranks. I know the torment of the boy who is without funds, and I know his anxiety as to how he will get an education that will help him achieve his ambitions. If nomination means election, I will take to the White House this best equipment for a man in public life—experience in the ranks with those who toil."

KEEP RECORD STRAIGHT

Some of those who are perhaps not familiar with the record, or who are perhaps more or less indifferent about keeping the record straight are seeking, through inuendo or otherwise, to create the impression that Pat Neff is running for Governor without a platform, or with an indefinite and evasive statement of the principles and policies upon which his candidacy is based.

The record is that Mr. Neff's platform setting forth his views on public questions was announced in his opening speech at Waxahachie, was presented through the public press, has been discussed in his numerous speeches during the campaign and may be had on application to Mr. Neff's law office at Waco. His platform, as so promulgated, definitely and uncompromisingly declares for:

Good roads; more efficient schools, vocational education and better paid teachers; a better agricultural policy; equalization and reduction of taxation and economy in office and reduction in public expenditures; prohibition, woman suffrage and the purity of the ballot; the opening up and improvement of idle agricultural lands; improvement of the Texas livestock industry; encouragement of mid and factory industries in Texas; and many other progressive policies.

Why not keep the records straight?

TICK LAW CHANGE WILL HAMPER WORK SAYS INSPECTOR

ILLEGAL MOVEMENT OF CATTLE MAY PROLONG QUARANTINE STATEMENT MADE HERE.

A very serious condition has developed in the tick-eradication work in this state due to the finding of the Court of Criminal Appeals in the J. M. Leslie case, and the enactment of the new law by the recent Legislature to ovecome the deficiences found, says a Federal officer engaged in this work in this part of Texas. The new law is cumbersome and slow of action and gives the small cow man the opportunity to delay in dipping his few head of cattle and thus delays and damages the work in every county doing active tick eradication work.

The new law changes certain phases of the enforcement of the dipping regulations and makes it slow to get law enforcement upon these uninformed or unfavorable to the work through ignorance of the true purport of the work. While a great amount of excellent work is under way in tick eradication, yet it is not along the line of getting definite results in a given time. Milam county has had two years of tick-eradication work and the officials in charge of the work have used every effort to get the county clear of the cattle-fever-tick, yet through the opposition of the small cattle owners we may have to yet do another year's work unless we wake up and get the remaining infested and exosed herds regularly dipped for the rest of the season.

There are ten inspectors in the county on regular duty and they have their hands full without having to pay personal visits to cattle owners over the county urging them to dip their cattle. It is the sensible thing, it appears to us, for every cattle owner, large or small, to get all their cattle dipped and get thru with this task.

The new law makes it compulsory upon cattle-owners to dip all tick-infested or exposed cattle every fourteen days, and this also applies, according to the new law, to all cattle or premises which have been tick infested within the past nine months. If the authorities have to go into the courts in order to compel the dipping of these cattle we can not expect the work to continue next year for practically the entire season, but if everyone interested will give their hearty co-operation, voluntarily, the work can be completed this season.

This is the sensible thing for the cattle owners of this county to do and doing otherwise is the grossest of nonsense. Our people may as well understand that this work will be done regardless of cost or time taken to do it. The same Federal officer stated that this county will also have to demonstrate that the county will fully enforce the quarantine regulations before they can expect release from Federal quarantine of any part of the county.

There has been some illegal movement of cattle into the county from ticky-counties not doing tick-eradication work. This must stop immediately if we are to expect release from Federal quarantine, and the courts of the county must see that these violators are adequately prosecuted for their offenses. The people of Milam county must awake to this condition and see that the conditions are remedied. and this must not be delayed.

DODSON TELLS THE HORROR OF CALOMEL

You Don't Need to Sicken, Gripe, or Salivate Yourself to Start Liver.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated. You feel headachy, your stomach may be sour, your breath bad, your skin sallow and you believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start liver and bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling splendid. It is perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate.

Melvin Weems, E. 2nd St., Cameron, says: "My kidneys had bothered me more or less for a long time. It seemed whenever I took a little cold or there was a sudden change There was a sediment in the secretions and they smarted and burned in the passage. My back got lame, and the muscles all through me were lame and sore. I had taken all kinds of medicines but didn't get any help at all. I called on the doctor here for advice and he told me to take Doan's Kidney Pills. I followed his advice and got a supply of Doan's and took them as directed. ### "THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING IS IN THE EATING."

There is no question but that the Byrne Shorthand, taught in the Tyler Commercial College, is the greatest system in use today. It makes better stenographers in less time and with less cost than any other. It may be written either with a pencil or any typewriter. It has over 30 000 enthusiastic writers, it holds the world's record for speed in a given length of time, is most simple, legible and rapid system in use, as is shown from the following remarks by our students who first studied other systems:

"I take great pleasure in telling the public that the Byrne Shorthand is the only system. I previously studied Pitman for four months, used it in actual practice for four months. At the end of six weeks study of the Byrne, I was a better writer than I had ever been with the Pitman."

"I have been a Sloan-Duployan stenographer for 15 years; I found the system inadequate. I then took the Gregg, under Mr. Gregg of Chicago, but found it illegible. I then took up the Byrne, which I consider the stenographic marvel of the age."

"I first studied Pitman Shorthand, then took up the Byrne. and found the Byrne to be 35 per cent shorter and that it could be written at a much higher rate of speed and read like print."

"I studied Pitman for four months gave it up in disgust; then I took up Pernin and studied it almost night and day for six months, but was not competent to hold a position. I then took up the Byrne for three months, and find that I can hold any kind of a position."

"I graduated in Graham Shorthand, writing 100 words a minute, after 9 months study. After studying the Byrne Simplified, together with Byrne Practical Bookkeeping, for 4 months, I could write Byrne much faster and regard it superior to any other system."

"I thoroughly mastered 14 systems, seven of the most prominent Pitman systems, Gregg Chartier, Byrne, and four minor systems, and find the Byrne much easier to read, that it can be written with one and one-half times the speed that can be made with any of the other 13 systems."

"After studying six different Pitmantic systems, I was unable to hold an ordinary office job, but with five weeks study of the Byrne I went into the District Court and did reporting successfully, and was appointed official court stenographer."

Why study any system of Shorthand, other than the Byrne, when the Byrne can be learned in half the time or less, read with greater ease, and written at a higher rate of speed which means better salary and promotion? It does not cost half as much to complete a course in our school as it does one of the other systems in other schools. We hold exclusive right to teach the Byrne in this section. The author is the president of our school.

Fill in and mail to Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, for large free catalogue containing full indorsements and names and addresses of the above, and of others who have tried the other systems and abandoned them for the Byrne. Our Bookkeeping, Cotton Calssing and Telegraphy are as far superior to the other systems as is the Byrne Shorthand.

VETERAN TO GET PENSION INCREASE

COMPTROLLER REPORTS MORE FUNDS TO BE DISTRIBUTED AMONG THOUSANDS ON THE ROLL

Confederate veterans will receive an increase in pension allotments according to a report from Comptroller Wigington to Speaker R. E. Thomason, received in Cameron today by County Judge W. G. Gillis.

The letter which is as follows will be of interest to veterans in Milam county:

"Hon R. E. Thomason,
Speaker. House of Representatives
Austin Texas.

Dear Sir:

"In compliance with a resolution passed by the House of Representatives June 8, I submit the following information relative to the Confederate Pension Fund:

"There are now 15,768 pensioners on the rolls, a decrease of 814 for same date last year. Pensioners have received $23.00 per quarter for the past five quarterly payments.

"Balance on hand at beginning of fiscal year ending Aug. 31. 1919, $505,071.45. Receipts during the $1,365,799.05. Disbursements for the year, $1 484,918.25.

At the close of last quarter, May 31, 1920, there was a balance of $753,043.46 in the State Treasury to the credit of the Confederate Pension Fund, with warrants outstanding to the amount of $362,664.

"With the apportionment for this quarter fixed at $23.00 there would remain in the Treasury at the close of this fiscal year possibly $40,0000.00. therefore I have increased the pay those who are enjoying this meager benefit may receive every dollar available.

The pension fund is equally distributed between all beneficiaries, and can be drawn upon only for the payment of Quarterly Pension Warrants and Mortuary Warrants issued after the death f the pensioner. Not one dollar of the Fund is expended for clerk hire, postage or other expense.

Respectfully submitted,
M. L. Wigginton,
State Comptroller.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK.

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It mkes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing it thru the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

RATING PROFIT HIGHER THAN HUMAN LIFE

If a substitute is offered you for an advertised medicine, you can bank on it that the vendor is doing it for a bigger profit and rates profit higher than human life. One bottle of Mendenhall's Number 40 For The Blood will go as far as six bottles of the ordinary blood medicine sold in drug stores. It is put up by J. C. Mendenhall, a druggist of Evansville, Ind., since 1873. The ingredients entering into Number 40 are set down in the U. S. Dispensatory and other authoritative books on medicine as follows: "In the treatment of diseases of the blood, an acknowledged remedy among all schools of physicians. Removes the cause of disease by stimulating the removal of waste products in the system, thus encouraging nutrition. Disorders of the nervous system demand this treatment, such as neuralgias, headaches, constipation, chronic rheumatism and catarrh. Used with phenomenal success in eczema, sores, ulcers, boils and glandular swellings." Mrs. Fannie Thurman, 106 W. Ash St., Columbia, Mo., writes as follows: "I was run down with rheumatism, had nervous breakdown with stiffness and swelling of the joints so I could not move without great pain. I read an ad. for Number 40 and decided to try it. I was relieved with the first bottle and since taking the second the stiffness and pains have left me and I feel as supple as a child. I am sending you this letter as I think every sufferer should hear of the wonderful merits of Number 40."

Get a Supply of Travelers Checks

A common misconception in the minds of those who have not experienced the convenience of carrying their travelers funds in the form of Travelers Checks, is that these checks are a substitute for cash.

They are more than that—they are an improvement upon cash. The difference is not alone in words—it is the difference that lies between convenience and inconvenience, between risk and safety.

They are issued in denominations of $10.00, $20.00, $50.00 and $100.00, and are good everywhere; they are accepted not only by banks, but by hotels, railroads, steamship companies and all business houses generally.

Immediately upon the delivery of Travelers Checks, the signature of the owner is inscribed in the upper left hand corner.

When cashing a check, the owner simply coutersigns it in the lower left hand corner. The identity is established by comparison of the original signature with the counter-signature.

If Travelers Checks are lost we refund your money.

Paul Watson's Account of a Swimming Party.

"Yes, we had a swimming party and Mikey Wylie gave it. We call him 'Mikey'—and you can say we stayed in from nine to eleven if you want to. No, there were no girls; there was to have been, but every one had some excuse, so there were just ten boys. No, Mikey did not pay it. We all paid our own way, but you see when you make it a 'party' no one else can come in while we are. Oh, you can just add some more to it if you want to. Mikey's the best diver and Nelson Green the best and fastest swimmer. You just ask me some questions. Yes, we would have had a better time if we had had some girls along. I do not know which one I would have taken, but I reckon just the first one who came along. No, we did not go home with Mikey for breakfast. We went home."

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Last Friday afternoon between the hours of 4:30 and 6:30 Mrs. Charles Smith gave her two little sons, Charlie, Jr., aged four years, and Timmie aged 2 years a birthday party. There were fiften little boys and girls who came ladened with beautiful toys. They played games and froliced on the lawn until time for the usual birthday cake. It was white with red and white and blue candles, and the decorations were the same colors.

At the close Mrs. Smith was assisted in serving by the Misses Sylva Smith and Myrtle Compton, the things most children love, cream and cake and watermelon.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Miss Helen Flynn celebrated her birthday and that of her friend, Mr. John Henderson. at her home last Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock with an elegant four-course dinner.

The home was beautiful in midsummer cut flowers of all kinds. The dining room in white daisies; the centerpiece on the table was a large cut-glass bowl of white daisies. The table was also decorated with yellow candles, tied with white tulle. Place cards were in daisy design, yellow baskets filled with nuts.

Those finding places at this beautifully laid board were: Misses Helen and Catherine Flynn, Ruth Coleman, Virginia Vest, Mabel Jeter, Mottie Cass, Mary McLane and Messrs Jno. Henderson, Jack Adams, Hayden Lawrence, Mike Coleman, Delbert Childress, Max Plaster and Price Cross.

After all were seated. the following menu was served:

Fruit cocktail in orange cups
Fried chicken, rice, tomatoes,
English peas in potato nests,
Salted nuts.
Pear and apple salad in dainty design, saltine crackers
Yellow mints
Yellow and white brick cream

After this the birthday cake, a very large and beautiful white cake decorated in daisies and yellow candles was cut. The ring fell to Mr. Mike Coleman, the thimble to Miss Ruth Coleman, the dime to Miss Virginia Vest, and the button to Mr. Jack Adams.

The young people then repaired to the porch and enjoyed the beautiful moonlight, conversation and the ever popular game of "42." Music on the Edison was enjoyed throughout the entire evening.

The Herald and many other friends wish for Miss Helen and Mr. Henderson many happy returns of the day.

Following is the text of the telegram from the governor to the convention:

"Hon. Joseph T. Robinson, chairman, "Democratic convention, San Francisco, Cal.:

"Let me thank you for your felicitious message. I shall accept the standard from the democracy of America, conscious, not only of the honor, but the great responsibility conferred. As providence gives me a strength, and vision, my firm resolve will be to justify the confidence which has been officially expressed. The shrine of government is in the communities of land near homes that have given service and sacrifice. To them we carry our cause with the assurance that the faith shall be kept and that the institutions of a free people are always sufficient to the needs of time, if they are held to the causes which we pledged.

"Please convey to the delegates of the convention my grateful acknowledgements.
